A fire that started in a shop in Canton Township last night caused damage estimated at $125,000. The fire broke out at about 11 p.m. at the shop, which is located on the corner of Main and 10th streets. The fire spread quickly, and the building was completely destroyed. The fire department arrived at the scene at about 11:30 p.m. and worked for several hours to contain the fire. The cause of the fire is still unknown.

Defense accuses L. E. Bryant of threatening defendant Battista advised burning auto, witness testifies

The defense in the trial of L. E. Bryant accused him of threatening the defendant, Battista, with burning his car. A witness testified that he saw Bryant threaten Battista. The witness said that Bryant told him that he would burn Battista's car if he did not testify against him. The witness said that he was afraid of Bryant and did not testify against him. The defense argued that Bryant's threat was a key factor in Battista's decision not to testify against him.

The defense also argued that Bryant was the one who started the fire. They said that Bryant was the one who was in the shop at the time the fire started. They said that Bryant was the one who was seen running away from the shop after the fire started. The defense argued that Bryant was the one who was responsible for the fire.
