Lost & Found Helen Chandler-Wilde, 2024-12-31 Why do we buy and keep the things we do and how can we live a less cluttered life? Journalist Helen Chandler Wilde dives deep to explore, explain, and guide us on the path to liberation from the tyranny of too much. On New Year's Eve of 2018, Helen Chandler Wilde lost everything she owned in a storage unit fire in Croydon, England, where she'd stowed all her possessions after a big breakup. She was left devastated and forced to re-evaluate her relationship with owning material things. In Lost & Found, she offers a profound mix of memoir, self-help, and journalism to explore the psychological reasons, sociological quirks, and human nature and fascinating science behind why we buy and hold onto things. Helen interviews people from all walks of life, including behavioral psychologists on the science of nostalgia, a nun on what it's like to own almost nothing, and consumer psychologists on why we spend impulsively to help us better understand why we're surrounded by clutter and what we can do to change it. By the end of this smart-thinking book filled with lessons and engaging prompts to help us gain perspective on our buying habits and the value we place on what we already have, your relationship with your belongings will be changed forever. The perfect new year, new you read or gift for anyone who is downsizing, striving for a more sustainable lifestyle, or is eager to cultivate a minimalist mindset.
