Navigating the News Stina Bengtsson, Sofia Johansson, 2024-11-18

News today is a genre in flux. New kinds of news producers and novel means of distributing, sharing and using news align with alternative ways of understanding what news is. Based on an extensive ethnography of news practices and perceptions among a broad range of young adults in Sweden, this book discusses how the rapid digitisation of news has shaped young people's understanding of it, as well as how news is made relevant, trusted and used in the temporalities and spatialities of everyday life. This cutting-edge volume analyses the blurring boundaries between news and social media, facts and stories, highlighting how new media categories such as influencers and memes can take on the status of news for young audiences and shape their understanding of themselves and the world.

Starred Review Library Journal. Journalism permeates our lives and shapes our thoughts in ways we've long taken for granted. Whether we listen to National Public Radio in the morning, view the lead story on the Today show, read the morning newspaper, headlines stay up to the minute with Internet news, browse grocery store tabloids, receive Time magazine in our mailbox or watch the nightly news on television, journalism pervades our daily activities. The six-volume Encyclopedia of Journalism covers all significant dimensions of journalism, including print, broadcast and Internet journalism, U.S. and international perspectives, history, technology, legal issues and court cases, ownership and economics. The set contains more than 350 signed entries under the direction of leading journalism scholar Christopher H. Sterling of The George Washington University. In the A to Z volumes 1 through 4, both scholars and journalists contribute articles that span the field's wide spectrum of topics from design, editing, advertising and marketing to libel, censorship, First Amendment rights and bias to digital manipulation, media hoaxes, political cartoonists and secrecy and leaks. Also covered are recently emerging media such as podcasting, blogs and chat rooms.
