Symbolic Realism in Susan Glaspell's 'Trifles'

Mathias Keller,2007-11 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 3 <http://www.uni-jena.de> 13 entries in the bibliography language English abstract Susan Glaspell s 1876 1948 literary career increased in significance when she and her husband George Cram Cook moved to their summer residence in Provincetown Massachusetts in 1915 They founded the Provincetown Players a group of dramatists who were about to change the development of American literature considerably Against the more commercial and conventional Broadway plays they shifted as a part of the little theatre movement the stage into a fisher s house and performed experimental plays One of these plays was Trifles Susan Glaspell's most reputed dramatic piece which was first produced in 1916 and published in 1920. Her first solo one act play is based on the Hossack's case, a real murder incident in Iowa on December 2, 1900, when she was a news reporter. Her reflection of this incident deals with an investigation process which takes place in the farmhouse of the murdered John Wright and his imprisoned wife Minnie. The officials, Mr. Peters, the Sheriff, the County Attorney, and the neighbour, Mr. Hale, search for evidences in this house to convict Minnie of the murder. At the same time, the Sheriff's and Mr. Hale's wives, Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Hale, are supposed to collect clothes for Minnie. While they are in the kitchen, they encounter the important evidences to draw conclusions of Minnie's miserable life, her deed, and hence take the opportunity to influence the case by concealing the most crucial evidence from the men. The play is innovative among other things in the respect that the main characters are absent and that Glaspell, as a consequence, creates a second explanatory level by means of symbols underneath the plot surface. This level circumscribes in detail Minnie's misery and the reasons for killing her husband. By the same means, Glaspell also generally criticizes the treatment of women in society.

Susan Glaspell, Martha Carpentier, 2009-01-14. Pulitzer Prize winning dramatist, founding member of the Provincetown Players, best selling novelist, and award winning short fiction writer. Susan Glaspell (1876-1948) has been recovered from the marginalization of women writers that took place in the post-war period of canon formation in America. Her recovery, begun by feminist critics and theatre historians in the 1980s, reached a milestone with the 1995 publication of the first collection of critical essays, Susan Glaspell Essays on Her Theater and Fiction, edited by Linda Ben Zvi. Since then, scholarship has been exploding, with six major books on Glaspell and her work published since the year 2000, several by authors represented here. While Glaspell's work with the Provincetown Players (1915-1922) was crucial for the development of American theatre, scholars are now fully realizing the extent to which her stories and novels, as well as all of her plays, reflect a deep engagement with the major literary movements and political events of her age. A realist concerned with issues of social justice and a modernist committed to exploring the psyche, Glaspell, through her art, provides thoughtful commentary not only on feminist issues of women and gender but on war, class, socialism, idealism, aesthetics, ethics, and law. Susan Glaspell: New Directions in Critical Inquiry continues the tradition started by Ben Zvi and brings it up to date, featuring new work in various post-structural critical approaches from leading Glaspell scholars, including Americanists Mary E. Papke and Kristina Hinz, legal scholar Patricia L. Bryan, cultural historian J. Ellen Gainor, feminist biographer Barbara Ozieblo, performance artist Lucia V. Sander, and classicist Marie Molnar. Praise for the book: Professor Carpentier's study of Glaspell's fiction stands as the most important work on the subject and has led to a renewed interest in the subject. There is growing interest in Glaspell's writing and this book should find a solid readership from the following fields: American drama and fiction studies, American studies, Women's studies, and Cultural Studies. I fully support the project and encourage your press to publish it. Linda Ben Zvi, Professor of Theatre Studies, Tel Aviv University.
