Track And Field Speech:

American Women's Track and Field, 1895-1980 Louise Mead Tricard, 1996-01-01 In 1895 the Vassar College Athletic Association ignored the constraints placed on women athletes of that era and held its first ever women's field day featuring competition in five track and field events. Soon colleges across the country were offering women the opportunity to compete and in 1922 the United States selected 22 women to compete in the Women's World Games in Paris. Upon their return, female physical educators severely criticized their efforts, decrying the evils of competition. Wilma Rudolph's triumphant Olympics in 1960 sparked renewed support for women's track and field in the United States. From 1922 to 1960, thousands of women competed and won many gold medals with little encouragement or recognition. This work is a history based on many interviews and meticulous research in primary source documents of women's track and field from its beginnings on the lawns of Vassar College in 1895 through 1980 when Title IX began to create a truly level playing field for men and women. The results of Amateur Athletic Union Women's Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field Championships since 1923 are given as well as full coverage of female Olympians.

Wilma Rudolph: Track and Field Champion Adrianna Morganelli, 2018-01-18 Read Along or Enhanced eBook When doctors told her parents that she may never walk again, no one could have imagined that Wilma Rudolph would grow up to become the world's fastest woman. This awe-inspiring book shows how, with grace, perseverance, and dedication, young Wilma used her inner strength to overcome physical disabilities caused by polio to win three gold medals for the USA in track and field at the 1960 Olympics. A sports superstar and an icon worldwide, her legacy continues to inspire youth and African American communities today.

Track and Field Omnibook Ken Doherty, 1985 Every event covered in depth, the strengths and weaknesses of various approaches and styles are examined, and hundreds of line drawings illustrate techniques in the field events: sprints and hurdles.
