Young Adult Resources Today Don Latham,Melissa Gross,2014-05-21 Young Adult Resources Today Connecting Teens with Books Music Games Movies and More is the first comprehensive young adult library services textbook specifically written for today's multidimensional information landscape. The authors integrate a research focused information behavior approach with a literature focused resources approach and bring together in one volume key issues related to research theory and practice in the provision of information services to young adults. Currently no single book addresses both YA information behaviors and information resources in any detail instead books tend to focus on one and give only cursory attention to the other. Key features of this revolutionary book include its success in Integrating theory research and practice. Integrating implications for practice throughout the book. Integrating knowledge of resources with professional practice as informed by research. Integrating both print and electronic formats throughout within the resource chapters including websites and social media. Latham and Gross accomplish all this while paying particular attention to the socially constructed nature of young adulthood diversity, YA development and multiple literacies. Their coverage of information landscapes covers literature with detailed coverage of both genres and subgenres movies magazines web sites social media and gaming. The final chapter covers navigating information landscapes focusing on real and virtual YA spaces, readers advisory programming and collaboration. Special attention is paid to program planning and evaluation.

Being Self-Study Researchers in a Digital World Dawn Garbett,Alan Ovens,2016-09-13 This book presents research on the intersection of self study research digital technologies and the development of future oriented practices in teacher education. It explores the changing teacher education landscape by considering issues that are central to doing self study context and location data access generation and analysis social and personal media forms and transformations of pedagogy identity and ethics in an increasingly digital world. Self study research on with and around digital technologies is highly significant in education where the rapid development and ubiquity of such technologies are an integral part of teacher educators everyday pedagogical and research practices. Blended and virtual environments are now not only commonplaces in which to teach about teaching but also to research about teaching. The book highlights how digital technologies can enhance the pedagogies and knowledge base of teacher education research and practice while remaining circumspect of grandiose claims. Each chapter addresses aspects of doing self study with educational technology and provides issues for discussion and debate for readers wanting to engage in self study.
