Why did people in different geographical areas have different traditions for their houses?

People living in the

California Native Americans

What was ancient California like?

The first people came to California. It was a very long time ago. They found it a hard life. They lived in the land.

Mountain Native Americans

Life in the mountains was hard for the Native Americans. Their homes needed to protect them from the cold winter weather, and they had to survive on little resources.

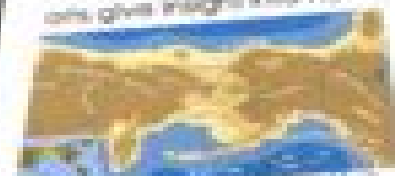

Miwok

There were several groups of Miwok living in California. The largest group lived at the base of the Sierra Nevada mountains. During the winter, the Miwok lived in all houses that were built up to 12 feet into the ground. The roof was formed with long sticks and covered with earth and brush. There was a hole at the top to let smoke escape the house, and covered with earth and brush. The Miwok were hunter-gatherers. They hunted deer, rabbits, and other animals that lived in the forest. They gathered acorns, berries and nuts. The Miwok are known for weaving beautiful baskets, and decorating their bodies with tattoos. During the winter, the Miwok wore buckskin clothing to keep warm.

California?
