Hyde, 2005 Mr Brainfright says It s important to keep a sense of humour at all times especially when you re being ripped apart by a lion Mr Brainfright is a teacher at Northwest Southeast Central School He teaches Grade Five and in his class is a student called Henry McThrottle who likes telling stories That s me I m Henry McThrottle and this is my latest story It s about an evil pencil a runaway lion an avalanche and falling out of windows I hope you like it

Best Practice Phonics Ruth Miskin, 1997-10-01 Great Habits, Great Readers Paul Bambrick-Santoyo, Aja Settles, Juliana Worrell, 2013-06-10 A book that brings the habits of reading to life Great readers are not made by genetics or destiny but by the habits they build habits that are intentionally built by their teachers The early formal years of education are the key to reversing the reading gap and setting up children for success But K 4 education seems to widen the gap between stronger and weaker readers not close it Today the Common Core further increases the pressure to reach high levels of rigor What can be done This book includes the strategies systems and lessons from the top classrooms that bring the habits of reading to life creating countless quality opportunities for students to take one of the most complex skills we as people can know and to perform it fluently and easily Offers clear teaching strategies for teaching reading to all students no matter what level Includes more than 40 video examples from real classrooms Written by Paul Bambrick Santoyo bestselling author of Driven by Data and Leverage Leadership Great Habits Great Readers puts the focus on learning habits reading habits guided reading and independent reading NOTE Content video and other supplementary materials are not included as part of the e book file but are available for download after purchase

Supporting Early Literacies through Play Kate Smith, Karen Vincent, 2021-11-24 Bringing together two key areas within early childhood play and literacy this book offers an innovative approach to examining literacies within the context of children s play This book Introduces students to contemporary theory and research in the field Explores the debates surrounding young children s play and how language and literacies are created through a range of play activity Helps students to reflect on how this knowledge can be applied in their future professional lives working to support young children Advocating for young children s play and diverse literacies this book supports students to develop a depth of knowledge about how play can extend children s literacies and encourages early childhood educators to reflect on and enhance their literacy practices with young children

Reading Randomised Controlled Trials Robert Savage, Amy Fox , Anneka Dawson, Helen Gray, Clare Huxley, 2025-03-03 In early 2021 22 the Flexible Phonics reading intervention a large scale randomised controlled trial took place in 118 schools in England and involved nearly 3 000 children This study aimed to provide valuable insights into the success of largely school based education trials The Flexible Phonics trial proved to be not only an important experiment in improving children s literacy but a case study in which the methodology of single randomised controlled trials in education can be considered Reading Randomised Controlled Trials investigates the complexities of conducting randomised controlled trials in the field of education and how they can be seen as a cultural activity The book emphasises the human operations decision making and actions that drive such trials which are often overlooked in published reports Through the case study of Flexible Phonics the book highlights the key differences between scaled educational trials and other types of trials such as pharmaceutical trials The additional focus on early childhood literacy is of significant educational importance particularly in the context of UK school partial closures in 2020 and 2021 during the Covid 19 pandemic Reading Randomised Controlled Trials is ultimately a unique resource on the implementation of randomised controlled trials in authentic school contexts and for the sustained improvement of practice in education
