The School I Deserve Jo Napolitano, 2021-04-20 Uncovers the key civil rights battle that immigrant children fought alongside the ACLU to ensure equal access to education within a xenophobic nation. Journalist Jo Napolitano delves into the landmark case in which the School District of Lancaster Pennsylvania was sued for refusing to admit older non English speaking refugees and sending them to a high discipline alternative school. In a legal battle that mirrors that of the Little Rock Nine and Brown v Board of Education 6 brave refugee students fought alongside the ACLU and Education Law Center to demand equal access. The School I Deserve illuminates the lack of support immigrant and refugee children face in our public school system and presents a hopeful future where all children can receive an equal education regardless of race ethnicity or their country of origin. One of the students Khadidja Issa fled the horrific violence in war torn Sudan with the hope of a safer life in the United States where she could enroll in school and eventually become a nurse. Instead she was turned away by the School District of Lancaster before she was eventually enrolled in one of its alternative schools a campus run by a for profit company facing multiple abuse allegations. Napolitano follows Khadidja as she joins the lawsuit as a plaintiff in the Issa v School District of Lancaster case a legal battle that took place right before Donald Trump's presidential election when immigrants and refugees were maligned on a national stage. The fiery week long showdown between the ACLU and the school district was ultimately decided by a conservative judge who issued a shocking ruling with historic implications. The School I Deserve brings to light this crucial and underreported case which paved the way to equal access to education for countless immigrants and refugees to come.

Practices of Digital Humanities in India Maya Dodd, Nirmala Menon, 2024-09-06 This book represents examples of innovations in digital humanities DH efforts across India while theorizing disparate challenges and its negotiations. It examines DH projects that have spanned private and public efforts institutionally sanctioned lab work and crowd sourced programmes of public significance and shows how collectively they demonstrate the potential paths of DH in India. The essays in the volume highlight the two fundamental challenges for DH acts of curation of new scales and the creation of platforms that can assist in the collation and analysis of these digital archives and changes in learning behaviour. They examine the transformation of the university and the opening up of new relationships between knowledge and audience in concomitant spaces of scholarship such as libraries archives and museums. The volume brings to the fore citizen efforts to document record and preserve as well as create new avenues of study and forge networks of scholarship that look very different from those of traditional academia. It also foregrounds the challenges of location and addresses the questions of how DH should be taught in India and how to build digital infrastructures.
