Swedish Film An Introduction And A Reader:

Swedish Film Mariah Larsson,Anders Marklund,2010-01-01 A compilation of carefully selected articles written by international film scholars this record provides an in depth look into the history of Swedish film This scholarly account covers various phenomena including the early screenings at the turn of the century Swedish censorship the golden age of silent films 1930s comedies and melodramas documentaries pornography and experimental films In addition this volume examines the work of important contributors such as Ingmar Bergman Stefan Jarl and Peter Weiss and discusses film policies of the new millennium

Swedish Film Mariah Larsson,Anders Marklund,2014-10-19 This book gives a wide and yet concise presentation of the history of Swedish film through a number of articles by Swedish and international film scholars The book draws upon a rich tradition of research on Swedish cinema and it offers a varied and inspiring introduction to the history from the very first film screenings to contemporary works Combining in depth studies with contextualising introductions this book provides a rich spectrum of perspectives on Swedish film previously unavailable in English The book will be essential reading for students scholars and anyone who has an interest in Swedish cinema

Swedish Cinema and the Sexual Revolution Elisabet Björklund,Mariah Larsson,2016-07-13 Swedish cinema became recognized for daring representations of sexuality with such films as One Summer of Happiness 1951 The Silence 1963 I Am Curious Yellow 1967 and a wave of sex films in the late 1960s and 1970s The association between Swedish film and sexuality shows up frequently in popular culture From Taxi Driver 1976 to Mad Men 2007 2015 dirty Swedish movie references abound Yet the connection has attracted little critical attention In this collection of new essays Swedish and American scholars go beyond popular misconceptions to explore the origins influences and reception of sexuality in Swedish cinema during the sexual revolution on both sides of the Atlantic A broad range of topics are covered from analyses of key films to a behind the scenes study of the Swedish Film Institute which played a significant role in opposing Swedish film censorship

Swedish crime fiction Steven Peacock,2015-11-01 Swedish crime fiction became an international phenomenon in the first decade of the twenty first century starting first with novels but then percolating through Swedish language television serials and films and onto English language BBC productions and Hollywood remakes This book looks at the rich history of Scandinavian noir examines the appeal of this particular genre and attempts to reveal why it is distinct from the plethora of other crime fictions Examining the popularity of Steig Larsson s international success with his Millennium trilogy as well as Henning Mankell s Wallander across the various media Peacock also tracks some lesser known novels and television programmes He illustrates how the bleakness of the country s noirs reflects particular events and cultural and political changes with the clash of national characteristics becoming a key feature It will appeal to students and researchers of crime fiction and of film and television studies as well as the many fans of the novels and dramatic representations

The Cinema of Discomfort Geoff King,2021-10-07 How do we understand types of cinema that offer experiences of discomfort awkwardness or disquieting uncertainty This book examines a number of examples of such work at the heart of contemporary art and indie film While the commercial mainstream tends to offer comforting viewing experiences or moments of discomfort that exist largely to be overcome The Cinema of Discomfort analyses films in which discomfort is offered in a sustained manner Cinema of this kind confronts us with material such as distinctly uncomfortable sexual encounters It invites us into uncertain relationships with awkward and sometimes unlikable characters It presents us with challenging behaviour or what are presented as uncomfortable realities It often refuses information on which to base judgments More uncomfortably cinema of this kind tends to provoke uncertainty at the level of what emotional responses we are encouraged to have towards difficult sometimes controversial characters or events The Cinema of Discomfort examines a number of case studies including Palindromes by Todd Solondz US and Dogtooth from Yorgos Lanthimos Greece along with other examples from Austria Sweden the UK the US and Germany Offering close textual analysis of the manner in which discomfort is generated it also asks how we should understand the appeal of such work to certain viewers and how the existence of films of this kind can be explained as products of both their socio cultural context and the more particular institutional realms of art and indie film A
