Turning Life Into Fiction:

Turning Life Into Fiction Robin Hemley, 2006-05-02 With lively style good humor and insight Robin Hemley helps you turn all that you experience into fresh and powerful fiction. By learning to reimagine you'll focus on translating real world people and events into characters and scenes that happen on paper for the first time. You'll think what if instead of what is in order to take control of your material and cut loose the inhibitions of real life. In these pages you'll learn how to hone your observation skills and fill your journal with rich and vivid details. Because as Hemley writes Life is in the details and so is good fiction. You'll see how to decide which ideas to bring to fiction and which ones to let go. And you'll learn how to find the right form novel short story vignette memoir for the story you want to tell. Use triggers to start your reader's imagination rolling. Keep your fiction emotionally honest by making the right choices between the way it happened and what the story dictates. Ask Is it believable not? Did it happen? Create composites of real people and places that fit the unique needs of your story and empower your imagination. Focus your fiction. Make sure everything every character counts and eliminate people who sit at the end of the bar without a role to play. Fictionalize ethically and legally other people's stories. Learn your rights as a writer versus their rights to privacy. Can you use actual names? When do you need to get permission? To illustrate how writers feed their fiction with reality Hemley uses examples from his own work and from fiction masters of yesterday and today. At the end of each chapter challenging exercises help you apply the basic theories and push them even further. An adventurous read Turning Life Into Fiction will help you create fiction that's just as strange and wonderful and real as the life that inspires it.

Virginia Life in Fiction Jay Broadus Hubbell, 1922      The Seven Deadly Virtues and Other Lively Essays Lynn Z. Bloom, 2008 This volume contains eye opening essays from a pioneering voice in creative nonfiction and composition studies. Inspirational educator and writer Bloom brings to fore the trials and triumphs she has experienced in coming of age as a scholar teacher wife mother grandmother and most especially a writer. A pioneer in composition studies and a chronic nonconformist Bloom is a lifelong advocate of opportunity authenticity and expression. Taking a stance in favor of bold creativity in living teaching and the act of writing that ties both together she warns against the snares and sneers of the seven deadly virtues duty rationality conformity efficiency order economy and punctuality that so often subvert the mission of education and the potential of expressive communication. Ranging from the comic to the confessional Bloom's memoir interweaves the pleasures and problems of a forbidden marriage and complex family the joys of cooking and travel the struggles to become a professor in an era that rejected women faculty and the risks of heeding the siren call of creative nonfiction. These fifteen essays probe the assumptions and values ethical intellectual social aesthetic and inevitably political
