Twitter Law Enforcement Guide:

How to Use Twitter Billy Grogan, 2015-08-16 The digital world of today requires law enforcement to step outside of their comfort zone in their efforts to better serve their community. One of the best non-traditional tools available to assist law enforcement in this effort is Twitter. Twitter is a popular social media program used by millions of people to communicate, engage, and get important breaking news from around the globe. How to Use Twitter: A Guide for Law Enforcement is written for those police agencies that are interested in learning how to get started using Twitter and use it effectively to engage their community. The information is presented in an easy-to-understand conversational tone for all readers. Likewise, this book is a great resource for those law enforcement agencies that are already on Twitter but are interested in taking their social media program to the next level. It covers a wide range of topics, includes real-life examples, personal experiences, and is a must-read for any police department interested in demonstrating transparency and building stronger relationships with their community. This guide is also helpful for other members of government who are interested in using Twitter to communicate with and educate their citizens as well as develop a Twitter strategy.

Social Media Investigation for Law Enforcement Joshua Brunty, Katherine Helenek, 2014-09-25 Social media is becoming an increasingly important and controversial investigative source for law enforcement. Social Media Investigation for Law Enforcement provides an overview of the current state of digital forensic investigation of Facebook and other social media networks and the state of the law touches on hacktivism and discusses the implications for privacy and other controversial areas. The authors also point to future trends.

Change and Reform in Law Enforcement Scott W. Phillips, Dilip K. Das, 2016-10-26 This book provides broad exposure to a variety of policing reforms that have not received adequate attention. It includes information and examples from different countries regarding efforts to change aspects of policing that are problematic or involve changes in the way crimes are committed. Some of the efforts to improve the police are relatively recent, i.e. using social media and some areas of policing that seem to require frequent attention, i.e. working with the public.

LOS ANGELES TIMES FRONT PAGE SUNDAY BOOK REVIEW Unwarranted Barry Friedman, 2017-02-21 At a time when policing in America is at a crossroads Barry Friedman provides much needed insight analysis and direction in his thoughtful new book Unwarranted illuminates many of the often ignored issues surrounding how we police in America and highlights why reform is so urgently needed This revealing book comes at a critically important time and has much to offer all who care about fair treatment and public safety Bryan Stevenson founder and Executive Director of the Equal Justice Initiative and author of Just Mercy A Story of Justice and Redemption In June 2013 documents leaked by Edward Snowden sparked widespread debate about secret government surveillance of Americans Just over a year later the shooting of Michael Brown a black teenager in Ferguson Missouri set off protests and triggered concern about militarization of law enforcement and discriminatory policing In Unwarranted Barry Friedman argues that these two seemingly disparate events are connected and that the problem is not so much the policing agencies as it is the rest of us We allow these agencies to operate in secret and to decide how to police us rather than calling the shots ourselves And the courts which we depended upon to supervise policing have let us down entirely Unwarranted tells the stories of ordinary people whose lives were torn apart by policing by the methods of cops on the beat and those of the FBI and NSA Driven by technology policing has changed dramatically Once cops sought out bad guys today increasingly militarized forces conduct wide surveillance of all of us Friedman captures the eerie new environment in which CCTV location tracking and predictive policing have made suspects of us all while proliferating SWAT teams and increased use of force have put everyone's property and lives at risk Policing falls particularly heavily on minority communities and the poor but as Unwarranted makes clear the effects of policing are much broader still Policing is everyone's problem Police play an indispensable role in our society But our failure to supervise them has left us all in peril Unwarranted is a critical timely intervention into debates about policing a call to take responsibility for governing those who govern us

Online safety Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee, 2014-03-19 The Culture Media and Sport Committee's inquiry has focused on three disparate aspects of online content and behaviour all of which are of widespread concern illegal content especially images of child abuse harmful adult content being made freely available to children bullying and harassment on social media The Committee praises the work of the Child Exploitation and Online Protection CEOP Command now part of the new National Crime Agency and the Internet Watch Foundation but calls for more resources to be devoted to their valuable work All three elements of CEOP's mission education social care and criminal justice need to be actively pursued and publicised Tracing paedophiles who share images on peer to peer networks and the so called hidden internet continues to challenge both the police and the internet service providers Legal adult pornography is widely consumed but children should be protected from viewing that material Legal adult sites could restrict access by children in a number of ways Age verification is important and whilst filters may not be failsafe they continue to improve and are an important way of protecting children from harmful content Ofcom has an important role in monitoring internet content and advising the public on online safety and more needs to be done to signpost the advice and educational resources available to both parents and teachers Today one in five 12 16 year olds think being bullied online is part of life Social media providers should offer a range of prominently displayed options for and routes to reporting harmful content and communications
