Getting into Law Emily Lucas, 2018-04-02 What's the difference between a solicitor and barrister? What law course should you choose? Where do you find a training contract? If you're thinking of studying a law degree, the new and updated edition of Getting into Law provides you with all the information that you need to get onto the course of your choice and start a successful law career. From application and interview to funding and your future, this comprehensive guide takes you through every stage of applying for a law degree. Written with contributions from admission tutors from the UK's leading law schools and top solicitors and barristers.

Choosing Nursing Cathy Poole, 2015-04-10 Becoming a nurse is a life-changing process and making the decision to study nursing at university is the first step. This short guide will help you decide whether it is the right move for you, give you an idea of which field of nursing might suit you best, and provide useful tips for making a successful application. Outlining the academic and clinical support that students can expect during their study, the stresses that they may face, how placements work, and the role of the NMC for student nurses, this book includes a wide range of testimonials from nursing students as well as practising nurses. Most importantly, it shows what is unique about each of the different fields, which include children's nursing, adult nursing, mental health nursing, learning disability, and defence nursing. It also looks at what all of these areas have in common, what makes nursing nursing, and what makes nursing special. With a final section looking to the future with tips for getting your first job and highlighting nursing opportunities around the globe, this is the must-have no-nonsense career advice book for all those considering nursing as a career option or waiting to start their nursing course, or indeed for those nurses who are wishing to return to the nursing profession.

Higher Education Institutions in the EU: Between Competition and Public Service Andrea Gideon, 2017-02-05 This book investigates the impact of EU law and policy on the Member States' higher education institution (HEI) sectors, with a particular emphasis on the exposure of research in universities to EU competition law. It illustrates how the gradual application of EU economic law to HEIs, which were predominantly identified as being within the public sector, creates tensions between the economic and the social spheres in the EU. Given the reluctance of the Member States to openly develop an EU-level HEI policy, these tensions appear as unintended consequences of the traditional application of the EU Treaty provisions in areas such as Union Citizenship, the free movement provisions, and competition policy to the HEI sector. These developments may endanger the traditional non-economic mission of European HEIs. In this respect, the effects of Union Citizenship and free movement law on HEIs have received some attention, but the impact of EU competition law constitutes a largely unexplored area of research.

and this book redresses that imbalance The aim of the research is to show that intended and unintended consequences of the EU economic constitution s are enhanced by a parallel tendency of Member States to commercialise formerly public sectors such as the HEI sector The book investigates the potential tensions through doctrinal analysis and a qualitative study focussing on the exposure of HEI research to EU competition law as an under researched example of exposure to economic constraints It concludes that such exposure may compromise the wider aims that research intensive universities pursue in the public interest Andrea Gideon is a Postdoctoral Research Fellow at the Centre for Law Business National University of Singapore for which she has suspended her position as Lecturer in Law at the University of Liverpool In her current project she is investigating the application of competition law to public services in ASEAN Her previous research concerned tensions between the economic and the social in the EU with a focus on EU competition law in which research area she earned her PhD at the University of Leeds in 2014 Enter the Drones Bill Carey,2016-07-28 How unmanned aerial vehicles proven in war were introduced in the US for peaceful purposes A narrative history covering the FAA s early experiences with UAVs to the present day While drones have become controversial recently US federal agencies have used them since the 1990s
