Bank, Leslie, Cloete, Nico

Ufh Application Form For 2015:

Goldfrank's Toxicologic Emergencies, Eleventh Edition Lewis S. Nelson, Robert S. Hoffman, Mary Ann Howland, Neal A. Lewin, Lewis R. Goldfrank, 2018-08-22 Goldfrank's is the premier toxicology textbook that should be in every emergency department or poison center library Whether you are a student resident or faculty there is something here for you If you are a toxicology fellow or poison specialist studying for your boards this is your go to book I highly recommend this work The Journal of Emergency Medicine The best edition yet of the landmark text in medical toxicology A Doody's Core Title for 2021 Covering every aspect of poison management this indispensable case based resource has been thoroughly refreshed to deliver evidence based principles viewed through the lens of an active bedside clinical practice In no other reference will you find such a diverse roster of esteemed editors and authors who deliver expert insights into every type of toxicologic emergency whether due to substance abuse or exposure to toxins Fully referenced and supported by a cohesive organization and full color format Goldfrank's begins with a historical perspective on medical toxicology principles and the general approach to the patient It then progresses to the fundamental principles of medical toxicology encompassing biochemical and molecular concepts the effect of xenobiotics on vital organs and body systems and toxicologic principles in special populations The Eleventh Edition of Goldfrank's Toxicologic Emergencies is the most rigorous volume to date driven by a precise analysis of the latest medical literature and complex cases designed to facilitate differential diagnosis New to this Edition Additional cases and Special Considerations chapters designed to enhance clinical decision making and patient outcomes New Antidotes in Depth provides timely critical information on toxicologic treatment strategies New content on toxicogenomics explores its increasingly important role in predictive toxicology Chapter ending bulleted summaries of key points Updated coverage of synthetics such as K2 Revised chapters on medical clinical and chemical toxicology include updated insights on poison emergencies treatment strategies and risk assessment tools Anchored in Place Bank, Leslie, Cloete, Nico, 2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges
