Humour across cultures. Research on transcultural humour in intercultural coaching and training settings Alexandra Mietusch, 2015-11-02 Master s Thesis from the year 2013 in the subject Communications Intercultural Communication grade 1 3 European University Viadrina Frankfurt Oder Faculty of Cultural Studies course Master Intercultural Communication Studies language English abstract Humour accompanies one daily It is widely used in movies and it is intentionally used in everyday life One can recognize that humour makes one feel good relieves tensions created by inter and intrapersonal conflicts and its charming character connects bonds and unites us with the people surrounding us Further scientific therapeutic discourses identified humour and its popular response laughter benefits mental health and social contacts and therefore should be used in therapeutic practices Hence it is suggested to rethink humour not only as a therapeutic instrument but also as a useful tool in counselling settings like Intercultural Coaching and Training For now one only knows that in intercultural settings the practice of humour is delicate due to cultural differences But is there a humour that works beyond cultures Why is it possible that for example a Brazilian and a Chinese person could laugh as a response to a humorous message together about the same humorous interaction From a transcultural research angle the question of how to use a transcultural humour in intercultural coaching and training settings becomes relevant Thus the present study will examine the application and practice of humour by intercultural training and coaching experts for the first time Their experiences in terms of its functions its implementation and potential criteria of transcultural humour will be explored The present thesis refers to theoretical concepts in humour research based on findings in social communication and therapeutic psychology and introduces a scientifically new currently disregarded concept and definition of transcultural humour based on findings of problem centred expert interviews from intercultural coaches and trainers from around the world Moreover the present study provides primary information on how a transcultural humour can work assessing criteria topics functions styles and why it is recommended to make use of humour in Intercultural Coaching and Training Academy of Management Learning and Education ,2009 BMJ ,2008

Systemic Coaching L. Michael Hall,2012-08-31 If Coaching isn't holistic it is not truly coaching True coaching is systemic by nature and design Yet most coaches today do not coach systemically in fact most have not been trained to think and work systemically and do not have systemic models to work with Systemic Coaching changes all of that It enables a professional coach to discover what it means to think and work systemically It describes how to use the Matrix Model as a systems model and to follow a client's energy through his or her system In this work you'll learn the key variables in the human mind body emotion system and how to distinguish the causes from symptoms how to recognize the information in energy out loops and much more Includes transcripts of scores of coaching conversations by L Michael Hall Ph D and see them put into system diagrams by Pascal Gambardella Ph D Systemic Coaching introduces Meta Coaching in the field of Coaching as the most systematic approach to coaching Local Leadership for Science Education Reform Ronald D.
