Construction Main Goal Of New Hospital Chief

McBride sees three main goals in his new job as Elmhurst General Hospital's administrator: construction of the hospital's expansion, recruitment, and maintenance of the "good doctor," hospital administrator.

"All I want to do is work in hospitals," McBride said, and at 41 he brings to Bellmore over 21 years experience in the hospital field. He last job with Wantagh Hospital and Medical Center in Elmhurst was director involved with planning, development, construction and opening of the hospital, similar to the current task at Bellmore General.

Earlier, when McBride was employed as administrator of several hospitals including Northside and Kosciusko, Bronx, as well as becoming regional director for Manhattan Eye, he was responsible for the operations of eight hospitals for Homan, including facilities in Bayonne, Dallas, Bronx, Elmhurst, Kaufman, Andrews and St. Vincent, Bronx, and in Elmhurst, however he was not involved with the construction of the hospital.

McBride replaces Bob St. John, former former chief who, according to hospital spokesman, resigned for "personal reasons." McBride's wife, Roberta, is owner of the hospital.

McBride replaces an administrator who was recruited from the Bronx, and the administration of good care is evidenced by the hospital's recent accreditation by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals (JACHS). McBride's contract is over $4,000, to be recognized, out of the approximately 7,000 hospitals nationwide. The accreditation covers from January 1977 to January 1980 and is the result of an audit every three years by JACHS field representatives.

Other main chores of McBride's new position are the development of housing for a new professional building to be constructed by March
