Synchroshock: a Diary of Uncanny Coincidences Aaron Garrison, 2015-12-09 We've all experienced coincidences. Yes, some have explanations. Buy a certain car and suddenly you're seeing them everywhere: selective perception. Get hungry for a certain food soon after seeing its advertisement: subconscious suggestion. However, then there are those other kind of coincidences: the ones that are just a tad too coincidental. When it comes to these, one can't help but wonder: Is there something more than meets the eye, something going on behind the scenes of reality? There we enter the realm of the synchronicity. I, Aaron Garrison, have experienced many such suspiciously coincidental coincidences. So many, in fact, that I began logging them and eventually blogging them. This book is simply a compilation of that data, reading as a personal diary of dozens upon dozens of incidents that all beg the question: What are the odds? In Synchroshock, discover where coincidence ends and synchronicity begins.
