We Flew over the Bridge Faith Ringgold, 2020-10-22 In We Flew over the Bridge one of the country's preeminent African American artists and award winning children's book authors shares the fascinating story of her life Faith Ringgold's artworks startling story quilts politically charged paintings and more hang in the Studio Museum in Harlem the Metropolitan Museum of Art the Guggenheim Museum the Museum of Modern Art and other major museums around the world as well as in the private collections of Maya Angelou Bill Cosby and Oprah Winfrey Her children's books including the Caldecott Honor Book Tar Beach have sold hundreds of thousands of copies But Ringgold's path to success has not been easy In this gorgeously illustrated memoir she looks back and shares the story of her struggles growth and triumphs Ringgold recollects how she had to surmount a wall of prejudices as she worked to refine her artistic vision and raise a family At the same time the story she tells is one of warm family memories and sustaining friendships community involvement and hope for the future Faith Ringgold Lisa E. Farrington, Faith Ringgold, 2004 The story of Faith Ringgold activist author academician is an uplifting look at a progressive artist who overcame discrimination and triumphed as a giant figure in American art notable as an accomplished painter a sculptor a printmaker and an art quilter She has never abandoned her goal of searching for human dignity and empowerment for fellow African Americans while tirelessly fighting against discrimination Faith Ringgold is a captivating look at the personal and professional life of one of the country's most notable female artists Selected works from several of her famous series are presented including The Flag Is Bleeding Help the Slave Rape Series 11 The Purple Dolt Series Mother's Quilt and We Came to America Lisa E Farrington is a faculty member at Parsons School of Design in New York City where she teaches art and race and gender issues A former Mellon Foundation fellow and recipient of numerous academic awards and honors she is the author of Creating Their Own Image African American Women Artists Oxford University Press 2004 and Art on Fire The Politics of Race and Sex in the Paintings of Faith Ringgold Millennium 1999

Creating Their Own Image Lisa E. Farrington, 2005 Creating Their Own Image marks the first comprehensive history of African American women artists from slavery to the present day Using an analysis of stereotypes of Africans and African Americans in western art and culture as a springboard Lisa E Farrington here richly details hundreds of important works many of which deliberately challenge these same identity myths of the carnal Jezebel the asexual Mammy the imperious Matriarch in crafting a portrait of artistic creativity unprecedented in its scope and ambition In these lavishly illustrated pages some of which feature images never before published we learn of the efforts of Elizabeth Keckley fashion designer to Mary Todd Lincoln the acclaimed sculptor Edmonia Lewis internationally renowned for her neoclassical works in marble and the artist Nancy Elizabeth Prophet and her innovative teaching techniques We meet Laura Wheeler Waring who portrayed women of color as members of a socially elite class in stark contrast to the prevalent images of compliant maids impoverished malcontents and exotics others that proliferated in the inter war period We read of the painter Barbara Jones Hugu collaboration on the famed Wall of Respect even as we view a rare photograph of Hugu in the process of painting the mural Farrington expertly guides us through the fertile period of the Harlem Renaissance and the New Negro Movement which produced an entirely new crop of artists who consciously imbued their work with a social and political agenda and through the tumultuous explosive years of the civil rights movement Drawing on revealing interviews with numerous contemporary artists such as Betye Saar Faith Ringgold Nanette Carter Camille Billops Xenobia Bailey and many others the second half of Creating Their Own Image probes more recent stylistic developments such as abstraction conceptualism and post modernism never losing sight of the struggles and challenges that have consistently influenced this body of work Weaving together an expansive collection of artists styles and periods Farrington argues that for centuries African American women artists have created an alternative vision of how women of color can are and might be represented in American culture From utilitarian objects such as quilts and baskets to a wide array of fine arts Creating Their Own Image serves up compelling evidence of the fundamental human need to convey one s life one s emotions one s experiences on a canvas of one s own making Dancing at the Louvre Faith Ringgold,1998 Contemporary artist Faith Ringgold has adapted the tradition of the American slave quilt to create a world in which African Americans and women dominate where history is not only questioned but reinvented 102 illustrations 40 in color American Shame Myra Mendible,2016-03-29 Essays examining the role of shame as an American cultural practice and how public shaming enforces conformity and group coherence On any given day in America s news cycle stories and images of disgraced politicians and celebrities solicit our moral indignation their misdeeds fueling a lucrative economy of shame and scandal Shame is one of the most coercive painful and intriguing of human emotions Only in recent years has interest in shame extended beyond a focus on the subjective experience of this emotion and its psychological effects The essays collected here consider the role of shame as cultural practice and examine ways that public shaming practices enforce conformity and group coherence Addressing abortion mental illness suicide immigration and body image among other issues this volume calls attention to the ways shaming practices create and police social boundaries how shaming speech is endorsed judged or challenged by various groups and the distinct ways that shame is encoded and embodied in a nation that prides itself on individualism diversity and exceptionalism Examining shame through a prism of race sexuality ethnicity and gender these provocative essays offer a broader understanding of how America s discourse of shame helps to define its people as citizens spectators consumers and moral actors An eclectic anthology it offers the readers more than one argument and perspective which makes the volume itself lively and rich Ron Scapp coeditor of Fashion Statements On Style Appearance and Reality Stick to the Skin Celeste-Marie Bernier,2019-01-08 The first comparative history of African American and Black British artists artworks and art movements Stick to the Skin traces the lives and works of over fifty painters photographers sculptors and mixed media assemblage installation video and performance artists working in the United States and Britain from 1965 to 2015 The artists featured in this book cut to the heart of hidden histories untold narratives and missing memories to tell stories that stick to the skin and arrive at a new Black lexicon of liberation Informed by extensive research and invaluable oral testimonies Celeste Marie Bernier s remarkable text forcibly asserts the originality and importance of Black artists work and emphasizes the need to understand Black art as a distinctive category of cultural production She launches an important intervention into European histories of modern and contemporary art and visual culture as well as into debates within African American studies African diasporic studies and Black British studies Among the artists included are Benny Andrews Bessie Harvey Lubaina Himid Claudette Johnson Noah Purifoy Faith Ringgold Betye Saar Joyce J Scott Maud Sulter and Barbara Walker Bearing Witness Jontyle Theresa Robinson, Maya Angelou, 1996 A conservatory one of the few in the country devoted to preserving African American artworks The Image-text Composite in the Art of Faith Ringgold Verlena Johnson, 1996 Art on Fire Lisa E.
