Wednesday February 14 1973:

The ABC Movie of the Week Michael McKenna, 2013-08-22 On September 23 1969 five years after the first made for television movie premiered the ABC network broadcast Seven in Darkness This was the first television film for an anthology show called the Tuesday Night Movie of the Week Dedicating ninety minutes of weekly airtime to a still emerging genre was a financial risk for the third place network a risk that paid off The films were so successful that in 1972 the network debuted The Wednesday Movie of the Week Although most of the movies are no longer remembered a handful are still fondly recalled by viewers today including Duel Brian's Song and The Night Stalker The series also showcased pilot films for many eventual series such as Alias Smith and Jones The Six Million Dollar Man and Starsky and Hutch By the end of both shows regular runs in the spring of 1975 the network had broadcast more than 200 made for television films In The ABC Movie of the Week Big Movies for the Small Screen Michael McKenna examines this programming experiment that transformed the television landscape and became a staple of broadcast programming for several years The author looks at how the revolving films showcased the right mixture of romantic comedy action horror and social relevance to keep viewers interested week after week McKenna also chronicles how the ratings success led to imitations from the other networks resulting in a saturation of television movies As a cultural touchstone for millions who experienced the first run and syndicated versions of these films The ABC Movie of the Week is a worthy subject of study Featuring a complete filmography of all 240 movies with credit information and plot summaries a chronology and a list of pilots both failed and successful this volume will be valuable to television historians and scholars as well as to anyone interested in one of the great triumphs of network programming

Screening Adult Cinema Farrah Freibert, Peter Alilunas, Desirae Embree, 2025-08-29 This collection of 39 original essays is designed to support film screenings Each chapter focuses on a single adult film a category broadly construed as films that foreground sex as a primary narrative aesthetic or marketing element The chapters draw on a variety of perspectives contexts histories themes and politics in examinations of style genre authorship performance and stardom The first of its kind Screening Adult Cinema brings together a broad range of established scholars alongside new voices to demonstrate the global breadth and diversity of adult cinema from a variety of time periods and transnational contexts paying particular attention to regions and films that have been underrepresented within existing adult film scholarship Following the Screening Cinema series Screening Adult Cinema is intended as a teaching text and reference for courses in which film screenings are a core activity while also appealing to adult film scholars This unique collection will be invaluable for courses on adult or exploitation film history feminist film studies global queer cinema and porn studies It will also be useful for general courses in media studies with a focus on gender sex and sexuality Cleveland Bar Journal ,1972
