I'd gotten over epic heartbreak before, one more wouldn't kill me. After moving to Austin following six months of unemployment back home Iris Taylor knows she should be glad to have landed a job so quickly even if the business is owned by a member of the same motorcycle club her estranged father used to belong to. Except Dex Locke might just be the biggest jerk she's ever met. He's rude, impatient, and doesn't know how to tell time. And the last thing they ever expected was each other. But it was either the strip club or the tattoo shop she should have chosen: the strip club, grump, sunshine, brother's friend, workplace romance, witty banter. The queen of slow burns. If you're looking for a big grumpy alpha man with a bad attitude who also has a soft side, then this book is for you. Dex Locke is EVERYTHING. I've just found myself a new favourite author. Evan Friss, 2024-08-06. A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER. Goodreads Choice Award Winner in History/Biography. One of Time's 100 Must Read Books of 2024. A spirited defense of this important odd and odds-defying American retail category. The New York Times: "It is a delight to wander through the bookstores of American history in this warm, generous book." Emma Straub, New York Times bestselling author and owner of Books Are Magic: "An affectionate and engaging history of the American bookstore and its central place in American cultural life, from department stores to indies from highbrow dealers trading in first editions to sidewalk vendors and from chains to special interest community destinations. Bookstores have always been unlike any other kind of store, shaping readers and writers and influencing our tastes, thoughts, and politics. They nurture local communities while creating new ones of their own. Bookshops are powerful spaces, but they are also endangered ones. In The Bookshop we see the stakes what has been and what might be lost." Evan Friss's history of the bookshop draws on oral histories, archival collections, municipal records, diaries, letters, and interviews with leading booksellers to offer a fascinating look at this institution beloved by so many. The story begins with Benjamin Franklin's first bookstore in Philadelphia and takes us to a range of booksellers, including the Strand, Chicago's Marshall Field Company, the Gotham Book Mart, specialty stores like Oscar Wilde and Drum and Spear, sidewalk sellers of used books, Barnes Noble, Amazon Books, and Parnassus. The Bookshop is also a history of the leading figures in American bookselling, often impassioned eccentrics, and a history of how books have been marketed and sold over the course of more than two centuries, including for example a 3,000-pound elephant who signed books at Marshall Field's in 1944. The Bookshop is a love letter to bookstores, a charming chronicle for anyone who cherishes these sanctuaries of literature and essential reading to understand how these vital institutions have shaped American life and why we still need them.
