Model Childhood he catalogs the decades worth of clutter in his mother's suburban garage and its meaning for himself and his family. In For Everyone Wu explores the complicated sensation of the Telfar bag often referred to as the Brooklyn Birkin and asks whether fashion can truly be revolutionary in a capitalist system if something can truly be for everyone without undercutting someone else. Throughout Wu centers the sticky vulnerability of living in a body in a world where history is mapped into every choice we make every party drug we take and every person we kiss. Wu's message is that to dance on your own is to move from critique into joy. To approach identity with the utmost sympathy for the kinds of belonging it might promise and to look beyond it. For readers of Cathy Park Hong and Alexander Chee Dancing on My Own is a deeply felt and ultimately triumphant anthem about the never ending journey of discovering oneself and introduces a brilliant new writer on the rise.

All in Her Head Elizabeth Comen, 2024-02-13 Finalist for the 2025 PEN E.O. Wilson Literary Science Writing Award USA Today Bestseller All in Her Head accomplishes a remarkable feat of storytelling. By combining essential medical histories about women's bodies with all the narrative propulsion of a medical thriller, Comen has written a must-read compelling and important book. Siddhartha Mukherjee, Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Emperor of All Maladies and The Song of the Cell, Wow! This book will upend everything you thought you knew about your body while empowering you to make better decisions moving forward. Through storytelling, extensive research, and easy recommendations, Dr. Elizabeth Comen has given us all a priceless road map to reclaim our agency. Eve Rodsky, author of Fair Play, A surprising groundbreaking and fiercely entertaining medical history that is both a collective narrative of women's bodies and a call to action for a new conversation around women's health. For as long as medicine has been a practice, women's bodies have been treated like objects to be practiced on, examined and ignored, idealized and sexualized, shamed, subjugated, mutilated, and dismissed. The history of women's healthcare is a story in which women themselves have too often been voiceless, a narrative instead written from the perspective of men who styled themselves as authorities on the female of the species yet uninformed by women's own voices, thoughts, fears, pain, and experiences. The result is a cultural and societal legacy that continues to shape the mis-treatment and care of women. While the modern age has seen significant advancements in the medical field, the notion that female bodies are flawed inversions of the male ideal lingers on, as do the pervasive societal stigmas and lingering ignorance that shape women's health and relationships with their own bodies. Memorial Sloan Kettering oncologist and medical historian Dr. Elizabeth Comen draws back the curtain on the collective medical history of women to reintroduce us to our whole bodies, how they work, the actual doctors and patients whose perspectives and experiences laid the foundation for today's medical thought, and the many oversights that still remain unaddressed. With a physician's knowledge and empathy, Dr. Comen follows the road map of the eleven organ systems to share unique and untold stories, drawing upon medical texts and journals, interviews with expert physicians, as well as her own experience treating thousands of women. Empowering women to better understand ourselves and advocate for care that prioritizes healthy and joyful lives for us and generations to come.

come All in Her Head is written with humor wisdom and deep scientific and cultural insight Eye opening sometimes enraging yet always captivating this shared memoir of women s medical history is an essential contribution to a holistic understanding and much needed reclaiming of women s history and bodies You Can Have It All Gaur Gopal Das,2025-12-23 Gaur
