The Art of the Documentary Megan Cunningham,2014-04-11 Documentary filmmaking is a powerful and vital element to our society and those who are responsible for bringing real stories and issues to a creative medium often have an uncanny ability to make a deep connection to us with their art. Legendary directors and cinematographers such as the Maysles brothers D A Pennabaker Chris Hegedus Errol Morris or Ken Burns have vividly made their marks in recent decades and continue to inspire those who enter the field. Inexpensive video camera equipment and video editing software have helped fuel a new wave of truth tellers bringing the tools of the craft within reach of amateurs and students as well as independent journalists and filmmakers on a budget. In The Art of the Documentary the directors editors cinematographers and producers behind today's most thought provoking nonfiction films reveal the thought processes methods and collaborations that have guided their efforts from project conception to developing producing shooting editing and releasing some of the finest documentary films of recent decades. This richly illustrated volume which will appeal to professional and aspiring filmmakers as well as documentary enthusiasts features conversations with directors cinematographers editors and producers including Ken Burns The Civil War Jazz Baseball director cinematographer D A
