Jutsu (English) Kano Ryu, Jose Caracena, 2024-05-02 Taiho Jutsu is the method of defense and police action used by Japanese law enforcement and also the army Since feudal times some specialized groups of the samurai class had been assigned the task of identifying arresting and transferring detainees under the orders of their superiors At the end of the 19th century coinciding with the disappearance of the samurai the first Japanese police forces appear During the first half of the twentieth century the Japanese police have the need to provide their agents with the training and knowledge necessary for the proper performance of their duties For this purpose they have the best experts in Budo Bujutsu teachers of Judo and Jujutsu Kenjutsu Bojutsu etc who develop a complete technical program under the name of Taiho Jutsu This program was created in the 1920s and later updated in the 1950s Contrary to what one might think the techniques of the original Taiho Jutsu were simple straightforward and without frills seeking only effectiveness In this work we study the history evolution and the most used techniques of traditional Taiho Jutsu At present police defense training of most police forces in the West base their concepts and technique on Japanese Taiho Jutsu with the logical updating of objectives and principles of each legislation In this study we have spent almost 2 years consulting with recognized experts in this field collecting all possible documentation and even traveling to Japan cradle of the birth of this formidable police method TAIHO JUTSU (English) Jose Caracena,Bruce R. Taiho Jutsu (English) Jose Caracena Juan,2024-05 TAIHO JUTSU - First Dan Program Bruce R. Beters,Jose Caracena,2021-10-22 In this book we present the program of Taiho Jutsu thru First 1st Dan dividing this study into 12 technical chapters In our previous book Taiho Jutsu we explained the history evolution and traditions of Taiho Jutsu In this book we have focused on the degree or rank program Most of the techniques for 1st dan are simple and commonly known to most martial artists and security professionals but then what makes taiho jutsu different The answer is that in this Japanese police method or system the excellence of the technique is sought along with the refinement of all the movements and the hidden details that improve the effectiveness of these police defensive tactics Many police systems ignore the basis principles and technical foundations In taiho jutsu programs a special reinforcement of these aspects is made The program up thru First 1st Dan is therefore simple intuitive and with logical sequences of defense In the higher degree dan programs progress is made in the more complex skills and elaborate study of ancient traditions and their evolution as well as today's modern police tactics and self defense Taiho Jutsu - First Dan Program (English) Juan Lorenzo, Jose Caracena, 2024-05-14 In this book we present the program of Taiho Jutsu thru First 1st Dan dividing this study into 12 technical chapters. In our previous book Taiho Jutsu we explained the history, evolution and traditions of Taiho Jutsu. In this book we have focused on the degree or rank program. Most of the techniques for 1st dan are simple and commonly known to most martial artists and security professionals, but then what makes taiho jutsu different? The answer is that in this Japanese police method or system the excellence of the technique is sought along with the refinement of all the movements and the hidden details that improve the effectiveness of these police defensive tactics. Many police systems ignore the basic principles and technical foundations. In taiho jutsu programs a special reinforcement of these aspects is made. The program up thru First 1st Dan is therefore simple, intuitive and with logical sequences of defense. In the higher degree dan programs, progress is made in the more complex skills and elaborate study of ancient traditions and their evolution as well as today's modern police tactics and self defense. Taiho Jutsu - First Dan Program (English) Jose Caracena, 2024-05-03
