Talmud For Beginners Text Vol 2 Volume 2:

The Talmud for Beginners: Text Judith Z. Abrams, 1991 Rabbi Abrams walks us through tractate Megillah in a warm unimposing and highly informed way     Meet the Rabbis Brad H. Young, 2007-06-01 Meet the Rabbis explains to the reader how rabbinic thought was relevant to Jesus and the New Testament world and hence should be relevant to those people today who read the New Testament In this sense rabbinic thought is relevant to every aspect of modern life Rabbinic literature explores the meaning of living life to its fullest in right relationship with God and humanity However many Christians are not aware of rabbinic thought and literature Indeed most individuals in the Western world today regardless of whether they are Christians atheists agnostics secular community leaders or some other religious and political persuasions are more knowledgeable of Jesus ethical teachings in the Sermon the Mount than the Ethics of the Fathers in a Jewish prayer book The author seeks to introduce the reader to the world of Torah learning It is within this world that the authentic cultural background of Jesus teachings in ancient Judaism is revealed Young uses parts of the New Testament especially the Sermon on the Mount as a springboard for probing rabbinic method The book is an introduction to rabbinic thought and literature and has three main sections in its layout Introduction to Rabbinic Thought Introduction to Rabbinic Literature and Meet the Rabbis a biographical description of influential Rabbis from Talmudic sources     Bookseller's catalogues Thornton J. and son, 1883     British Books , 1910     The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record , 1922     The Publisher , 1909     Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1996     The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia Isaac Landman, Louis Rittenberg, 1939     Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1999-08     The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal , 1896 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom     The Sermons on Joseph of Balai of Qenneshrin Robert R. Phenix, 2008 Robert Phenix investigates the collection of twelve Syriac poetic sermons recounting the story of Joseph in Genesis 37 and 39 50 The authorship of these poems has been disputed but this is the first study to attempt to argue from all aspects of the evidence that Balai of Qenneshrin is the author The study then examines all of the data that can be associated with Balai the religious environment of Qenneshrin and nearby Aleppo Balai s connections with the monk bishops of central Syria in the late fourth and early fifth centuries particularly Acacius of Beroea Aleppo and Rabbula of Edessa the status of chorbishops and the presence of Syriac speakers Since it is argued in this study that Balai s source for the Sermons on Joseph was a Jewish text this section also carefully examines the evidence for the Jewish community in Qenneshrin As part of the background of the author links between characters and the physical setting of the Sermons on Joseph and Qenneshrin are investigated The relationship of the Sermons on Joseph to other Syriac Joseph sources and Joseph material in the Pseudepigrapha and at Qumran is discussed followed by the question of the origin of the story which is located in a lost Greek Jewish composition The last section of the work examines the author s use of Hellenistic rhetoric and literary themes The many speeches in the Sermons on Joseph reveal rhetorical arrangements that are strikingly close to the models of arrangement found in Late Antique handbooks such as the Hermogenic Corpus Several of these arguments are examined as are the elaborate prefaces that introduce some of the individual Sermons on Joseph The literary themes and motifs of the Sermons on Joseph are explored It can be shown that some motifs known only in Syriac religious literature are employed in the Sermons on Joseph in non religious literary contexts
