Religious Theories of Personality and

Psychotherapy Frank De Piano, Ashe Mukherjee, Scott Mitchel Kamilar, Lynne M Hagen, Elaine Hartsman, R. Paul

Olson, 2012-12-06 Integrate spiritual traditions with psychological healing. In this fascinating volume, clinical practitioners of different religious traditions examine the same clinical case, offering insights, interventions, and explanations of transformation and healing. This practical approach allows them to explore broader issues of personality theory and psychology from the perspectives of various spiritual traditions: Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

Religious Theories of Personality and Psychotherapy addresses both the practical issues of doing psychotherapy and the deeper need to relate psychology and theology. After providing a thorough introduction to the spiritual tradition each author presents a critical psychological theory of personality and psychotherapy grounded in that tradition. The authors address the questions of what it means to be a person, what causes human distress, and how individuals experience healing. Religious

Theories of Personality and Psychotherapy offers profound insights into the urgent issues of human suffering and psychological transformation, including theories of personality structure and human motivation, the nature of experience and processes of change, the dialectical relation of theology and psychology, convergences and difference among the religious psychologies. Another Way Jeremy Garber, 2019-07-25 How can theologians, philosophers, and ordinary people think about the Holy Spirit in the twenty-first century? This volume offers one model: the pneumatology of minoritarian communal interpretation, the alternative creation of meaning within an oppressive majority context. Garber looks at the stories of Saul, Ezekiel, and Jesus in the Gospels, the Radical Reformers of the sixteenth century, and a contemporary group of spiritual but not religious artists to see how they understand the Spirit working in their lives. He weaves together the theories of John Howard Yoder, Deleuze, and Guattari, and media theorists like Stanley Fish, Jeremy Stolow, and Thomas Lindlof as a theological and philosophical background to those stories In the end the Holy Spirit is being weird like Jesus together and Garber offers some observations on what that might look like throughout history and today Reformed Systematic Theology, Volume 4 Joel Beeke,Paul M.
