Border Crossings Yves Gambier, Luc van Doorslaer, 2016-09-14 For decades Translation Studies has been perceived not merely as a discipline but rather as an interdisciplinary a trans disciplinary field operating across a number of boundaries This has implied and still implies a considerable amount of interaction with other disciplines There is often much more awareness of and attention to translation and Translation Studies than many translation scholars are aware of This volume crosses the boundaries to other disciplines and explicitly sets up dialogic formats every chapter is co authored both by a specialist from Translation Studies and a scholar from another discipline with a special interest in translation Sixteen disciplinary dialogues about and around translation are the result sometimes with expected partners such as scholars from Computational Linguistics History and Comparative Literature but sometimes also with less expected interlocutors such as scholars from Biosemiotics Game Localization Research and Gender Studies The volume not only challenges the boundaries of Translation Studies but also raises issues such as the institutional division of disciplines the cross fertilization of a given field the trends and turns within an interdiscipline Performing Adaptations Michelle MacArthur, Lydia Wilkinson, Keren Zaiontz, 2009 This title brings together scholars and artists from across North America and the United Kingdom to contribute to the growing discourse on adaptation in the arts Doing Social Science Fiona Devine, S. Heath, 2009-09-23 Each chapter in this book takes a cutting edge empirical study and uses it to explore and explain key theoretical and methodological concepts The text gives students invaluable insight into the constraints issues and possibilities of doing real social research This is essential reading for all students of social science 2010 [catalog] Degruyter, 2010-12-16 Reviews are an important aspect of scholarly discussion because they help filter out which works are relevant in the yearly flood of publications and are thus influential in determining how a work is received The IBR published again since 1971 as an interdisciplinary international bibliography of reviews it is a unique source of bibliographical information The database contains entries on over 1 2 million book reviews of literature dealing primarily with the humanities and social sciences published in 6 820 mainly European scholarly journals Reviews of more than 560 000 scholarly works are listed The database increases every year by 60 000 entries Every entry contains the following information On the work reviewed author title On the review reviewer periodical year edition page ISSN language subject area in German English Italian Publisher address of journal Educational Perspectives , 2009 □□ □□□ , 2009 AI and Artificial Life in Video Games Guy W.
