

Module 8

A. Conflict

1. Explain the causes of the Civil War? (It was more than slavery, be sure to include the other issues/causes as well. You can examine the information in 8.01 to find this information.)

farmers vs. industry, slavery, and expansion of territories.

2. Why was the election of 1860 known as the final straw leading to the Civil War?

Abraham Lincoln was elected as president and wanted slavery to stop spreading.

3. Describe how / why the United States was divided at the outbreak of the Civil War.

It was the North vs the south, people wanted there to be slavery and people didn't want slavery. Abraham got elected as president and wanted to end slavery which completely broke the states out into civil war.

4. What were the Border States? What did it mean to live in a border state?

A border state is a state that was a slave state that shared a border with a free state, to live in a border state means that you are for slaves.

5. How did the issue of slavery lead to the division of the United States? Why did people feel slavery was needed?

Some people felt that in order to be a stronger state we all needed to be on the same page and we couldn't go on half free states and half slave states. That's one of the things that led to the civil war. They felt they needed slaves because they had a lot of work that needed to be done and white folks didn't have the time or money to do it so they turned to slaves

6. Explain what happened during each of these including the end result and impact of each on both the North (Union) and the South( Confederacy):

In late 1860 and early 1861, seven Southern states seceded from the United States and formed the Confederate States of America. Florida seceded from the Union and joined the other Confederate states. There were Union soldiers stationed at Fort Pickens off the coast of Pensacola. Confederate soldiers demanded that the Union troops surrender their fort. The Union soldiers refused to leave the fort. The Union brought in more soldiers, and they held their ground. A battle began and a standoff lasted over a year. By May of 1862, the Confederates withdrew their troops. The Union was able to keep control of Fort Pickens and Pensacola for the rest of the war.

April of 1861 - Fort Sumter was located in South Carolina and occupied by Union troops. In April of 1861, when the soldiers were running low on supplies, Lincoln sent provisions to the fort. Lincoln made it clear that he was not sending reinforcements as he did not want to provoke a war. The president of the Confederacy, Jefferson Davis, felt this was an attack on the Confederacy. Davis ordered his troops to shell Fort Sumter. This marked the beginning of the American Civil War.

July of 1861 - The Battle of Bull Run, near Manassas, Virginia, was the first major battle of the Civil War. The Union troops had been on their feet since two o'clock in the morning. By 3 o'clock the next day the Union troops grew tired and began to panic. Many of these troops ran back to Washington, D.C. This retreat allowed the Confederates to win this battle. The Rebel victory proved that this was not going to be a one-sided war as some had predicted.

September of 1862 - General Robert E. Lee decided to invade Sharpsburg, Maryland, on September 17, 1862. This was the first time that the Confederates had fought on Northern soil. Lee invaded Sharpsburg, near Antietam Creek, because his troops were in desperate need of supplies. Twenty-three thousand men lost their lives in this battle. The Battle of Antietam was the bloodiest day in U.S. history.
