[illegible]

It's easy, and the government is eager, although not without its hesitations, because it was clear that we were talking about a "right to life" and not just a "right to health care." It's important to understand what you're saying. There's no question of supporting freedom of choice, as long as the people involved get their facts right. We're talking about the right to life, not the right to health care.
