The Holistic Life Ian Lillington, 2007

In this timely book the author sets out the vision for a sustainable planet as well as methods we can all use to get there. The time has now come to get very serious about using alternatives and conserving what we already have rather than living as if there is an unlimited supply of what we all know to be limited resources. Within this book are simple starting points which when implemented will be a small but significant change.
