The Lifespan Of A Fact:

The Lifespan of a Fact John D'agata, Jim Fingal, 2012-02-07 Now a Broadway Play An innovative essayist and his fact checker do battle about the use of truth and the definition of nonfiction How negotiable is a fact In 2003 after publishing his book of experimental essays Halls of Fame John D Agata was approached by Harper s magazine to write an essay for them one that was eventually rejected due to disagreements related to its fact checking That essay which eventually became the foundation of D Agata s critically acclaimed About a Mountain was accepted by another magazine the Believer but not before they handed it to their own fact checker Jim Fingal What resulted from that assignment and beyond the essay s eventual publication in the magazine was seven years of arguments negotiations and revisions as D Agata and Fingal struggled to navigate the boundaries of literary nonfiction This book includes an early draft of D Agata s essay along with D Agata and Fingal s extensive discussion around the text What emerges is a brilliant and eye opening meditation on the relationship between truth and accuracy and a penetrating conversation about whether it is appropriate for a writer to substitute one for the other

The Lifespan of a Fact John D'Agata, Jim Fingal, 2019-08-22 NOW A BROADWAY PLAY STARRING DANIEL RADCLIFFE Provocative maddening and compulsively readable Maggie Nelson In 2003 American essayist John D Agata wrote a piece for Harper s about Las Vegas s alarmingly high suicide rate after a sixteen year old boy had thrown himself from the top of the Stratosphere Tower The article he delivered What Happens There was rejected by the magazine for inaccuracies But it was soon picked up by another who assigned it a fact checker their fresh faced intern and recent Harvard graduate Jim Fingal What resulted from that assignment and beyond the essay s eventual publication in the magazine was seven years of arguments negotiations and revisions as D Agata and Fingal struggled to navigate the boundaries of literary nonfiction This book includes an early draft of D Agata s essay along with D Agata and Fingal s extensive discussion around the text The Lifespan of a Fact is a brilliant and eye opening meditation on the relationship between truth and accuracy and a penetrating conversation about whether it is appropriate for a writer to substitute one for the other A fascinating and dramatic power struggle over the intriguing question of what nonfiction should or can be Lydia Davis

On Essays Thomas Karshan, Kathryn Murphy, 2020 Sets out in a new and authoritative way the history of the essay explains how the essay has come to mean what it does surveys the widely various incarnations of the form offers new accounts of major essayists in English and traces a wide range of significant themes

The Ethics of Nonfiction George H. Jensen, 2023-10-23 This book explores issues of identity ethics and epistemology that arise around the writing and reception of creative nonfiction It examines a range of different nonfiction forms including the personal essay and memoir and ethical questions that arise in relation to them such as truth claims the confessional mode counter narratives Drawing on the ideas of Bakhtin Nietzsche and Foucault examples from creative non fiction writers such as Strayed and Knausgaard and the founding principles of the originators of the genre Seneca Augustine and Montaigne George Jensen argues that a limited conception of nonfiction leads to a limited view of its ethics Writing about the truth in an authentic way is more important than ever before and essential to this is the creation of the ethical subject      The Routledge Companion to Narrative Theory Paul Dawson, Maria Mäkelä, 2022-07-18 The Routledge Companion to Narrative Theory brings together top scholars in the field to explore the significance of narrative to pressing social cultural and theoretical issues How does narrative both inform and limit the way we think today From conspiracy theories and social media movements to racial politics and climate change future scenarios the reach is broad This volume is distinctive for addressing the complicated relations between the interdisciplinary narrative turn in the academy and the contemporary boom of instrumental storytelling in the public sphere The scholars collected here explore new theories of causality experientiality and fictionality challenge normative modes of storytelling and offer polemical accounts of narrative fiction nonfiction and video games Drawing upon the latest research in areas from cognitive sciences to complexity theory the volume provides an accessible entry point for those new to the myriad applications of narrative theory and a point of departure for new scholarship      Writing for The New Yorker Green Fiona Green, 2015-01-20 Original critical essays on an iconic American periodical providing new insights into twentieth century literary culture This collection of newly commissioned critical essays reads across and between New Yorker departments from sports writing to short stories cartoons to reporters at large poetry to annals of business Attending to the relations between these kinds of writing and the magazine s visual and material constituents the collection examines the distinctive ways in which imaginative writing has inhabited the prime real estate of this enormously influential periodical In bringing together a range of sharply angled analyses of particular authors styles columns and pages this book offers multiple perspectives on American writing and periodical culture at specific moments in twentieth century history Key Features Eleven new perspectives on major American writers including Roth Cheever Plath and Updike in relation to their first publication contexts Reconsiders modern and contemporary American writing and periodical culture focusing critical attention on commercially successful smart magazines Draws on new research in The New Yorker s manuscript and digital archives A distinctive combination of close critical reading and cultural analysis      Human-Centered Computing Don Harris, Vincent Duffy, Michael Smith, Constantine Stephanidis, 2019-11-11 The 10th International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCI International 2003 is held in Crete Greece 22-27 June 2003 jointly with the Symposium on Human Interface Japan 2003 the 5th International Conference on Engineering Psychology and Cognitive Ergonomics and the 2nd International Conference on Universal Access in Human Computer Interaction A total of 2986 individuals from industry academia research institutes and governmental agencies from 59 countries submitted their work for presentation and only those submittals that were judged to be of high scientific quality were included in the program These papers address the latest research and development efforts and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems The papers accepted for presentation thoroughly cover the entire field of human computer interaction including the cognitive social ergonomic and
