Whatever Became of Sin? Karl Augustus Menninger, 1973 An examination of the moral sickness of our time

MacArthur 2in1 Vanishing Conscience & Hard to Believe John MacArthur, 2009-08-11 Two books by John MacArthur in one volume Contains the Vanishing Conscience and Hard to Believe Whatever Happened to Sin? Tom Morrison, 2010-10-08

What Is Rhetorical Theology? Don H. Compier, 1999-10-01 What Is Rhetorical Theology covers the tradition of classical rhetoric especially as practiced by the Roman orators It considers the appropriation of this heritage in Augustine's On Christian Doctrine and the influence that important work had on Christian theology in the West After describing how modern scholarship has tended to view rhetoric with deep suspicion the book summarizes the retrieval of persuasive discourse in many academic disciplines and the influence of this movement on contemporary theologians such as David Tracy David Cunningham and Rebecca Chopp In addition What Is Rhetorical Theology offers its own constructive proposal that is it argues that the theological task today may be described as rhetorical hermeneutics With the help of literary critics such as Steven Mailloux and Jane Tompkins the author develops a practical and interested approach to the interpretation of classical Christian texts thereby allowing them to speak to our contemporary concerns The book also presents an epistemological defense of the rhetorical approach to reading as a middle way between objectivism and relativism a section that serves as a helpful introduction to current debates about postmodern thought Finally the book illustrates the rhetorical method by applying it to a doctrine of sin in the form of a constructive dialogue between critical theory and the Christian theological past Don H Compier is Associate Professor of Theology at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific and a member of the core doctoral faculty of the Graduate Theological Union

The Theology of the Cross in Historical Perspective Anna M. Madsen, 2007-01-01 The theology of the cross is indisputably a trendy concept today Numerous seminars books and dissertations tackle the topic But The Theology of the Cross in Historical Perspective demonstrates that theology of the cross is no passing fancy Theologies of the cross appear at the beginnings of the church in the sixteenth century reformations of the church and in the more contemporary modernization of the church Without theologies of the cross what the church is called to be and to preach becomes unclear So then what is the theology of the cross Anna Madsen surveys the theology of the cross in the thinking of Paul and Luther She also outlines several important twentieth century contributions to the subject On the basis of her analysis Madsen suggests that the theology of the cross reveals God to be found even in death In death after all boundaries disappear The theology of the cross assures Christians that God is present in the death of sin and in the realities of suffering and uncertainty Given that it announces God's presence the theology of the cross is ultimately a theology of grace freedom and trust
