Curriculum Planning for Family and Technology Sharon M. Strom, 2006 In this curriculum prototype students investigate significant questions of concern in a digital age to family and society develop the skills needed to address these questions and engage in individual family and community action and service learning projects Students discuss and practice these critical life skills in conjunction with an academically rigorous exploration of the family s role in developing information media and technology literacy MCCE website The Watchtower and the Cross D. A. Shane, 2024-06-13 How far would you go to pursue truth For a boy raised in the Jehovah s Witness religion truth is taken for granted But as adolescence sets in the desire for more in life impels him to seek answers to his questions outside the four walls of the local Kingdom Hall Tortured by his past and his uncertainty about the present he wanders far afield and ultimately into a booze soaked despair that he is unable to free himself from But in that powerlessness God seeks him and in the process of giving him a new lease on life lights the pathways of truth once more With this newfound faith the boy now a man journeys forth to places as diverse as Marine Corps bootcamp and Catholic seminary all the while navigating the minefield of ideologies and competing belief systems that litter our postmodern society He loses and gains family and trades his place on the Watchtower for a spot underneath the Cross
