Surveys and Soundings in European Literature, by Hermann J. Weigand. Edited by A. Leslie Willson Hermann John Weigand, 1966 Surveys and Soundings in European Literature ... Edited by A. Leslie Willson Hermann John Weigand, Amos Leslie WILLSON, 1966 Hesitant Heroes Theodore Ziolkowski, 2018-05-31 Why Theodore Ziolkowski wonders does Western literature abound with figures who experience a crucial moment of uncertainty in their actions In this highly original and engaging work he explores the significance of these unlikely heroes for literature and history From Aeneas who wavered momentarily before plunging his sword into Turnus's chest to Hamlet Orestes Parzival Wallenstein and others including Kafka's Josef K Ziolkowski demonstrates that characters' private uncertainty reveals a classic opposition of binary forces He describes how Aeneas for example was forced to choose between the ancient code of blood vengeance and the new civic virtues of law and justice Ziolkowski asserts that the indecision of the characters reflects the tensions that authors observed in their own societies Drawing on the insights of Hegel and Freud he analyzes the ways in which these tensions represent turning points in cultural history In stark contrast to Aeneas Josef K temporized for a year before his executioners thrust a knife into his heart For Ziolkowski the centuries separating Virgil and Kafka are ones in which the notion of the hero was transformed almost to the point of total inversion He sheds light on this transformation and a corresponding change in literary form A Riffaterrean Reading of Patrick Modiano's La Place de L'étoile Charles O'Keefe, 2005 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1969 Money Matters Richard T. Gray, 2018-03-23 In Money Matters Richard Gray investigates the discourses of aesthetics and philosophy alongside economic thought arguing that their domains are not mutually exclusive The transition in Germany from an agrarian or proto industrial economy to a capitalist industrial economy which was paralleled by a shift from the exchange of money in coin to the use of paper currencies occurred simultaneously with an efflorescence of German language literature and philosophy Based on close readings of canonical literary and philosophical texts Gray explores how this confluence led to a rich cross fertilization between economic and literary thought in Germany during this period Money Matters documents the surprising degree to which literature and philosophy participated in the creation of modern economic paradigms as well as the extent to which economics influenced literature and philosophy The cultural artifacts of the period demonstrate the existence of an economic unconsciousness persistent notions of value and exchange that inflect the aesthetic and thematic dimensions of literary and philosophical texts This book offers a thought provoking and original analysis of literature and ideas in the critical transition period from Kant and Goethe through the German Romantics to Marx JEGP, Journal of English and Germanic Philology Gustaf E.
