A color photograph of a man with a mustache, wearing a light-colored long-sleeved shirt and blue pants, working on a traditional furnace. He is barefoot and wearing a small cloth around his waist. He is holding a long metal tool over a small, glowing orange flame inside a cylindrical clay pot. The furnace is situated on a wooden platform. In the background, there is a campfire with flames and smoke, and some greenery. The overall scene suggests a rural, traditional industrial setting.

Surviving Against The Odds Village Industry In Indonesia:

Surviving against the Odds S. Ann Dunham,2009-12-24 A revised version of S Ann Dunham's anthropology dissertation that examines the economic importance of the blacksmithing trade in the rural Javanese village of Kajar

Surviving Against the Odds Stanley Ann Dunham,2009

Producing Indonesia Eric Tagliacozzo,2014-02-26 The 26 scholars contributing to this volume have helped shape the field of Indonesian studies over the last three decades. They represent a broad geographic background Indonesia the Netherlands the United Kingdom Australia the United States Canada and have studied in a wide array of key disciplines anthropology history linguistics and literature government and politics art history and ethnomusicology. Together they reflect on the arc of our field the development of Indonesian studies over recent tumultuous decades. They consider what has been achieved and what still needs to be accomplished as they interpret the groundbreaking works of their predecessors and colleagues. This volume is the product of a lively conference sponsored by Cornell University with contributions revised following those interactions. Not everyone sees the development of Indonesian studies in the same way. Yet one senses and this collection confirms that disagreements among its practitioners have fostered a vibrant resilient intellectual community. Contributors discuss photography and the creation of identity the power of ethnic pop music cross border influences on Indonesian contemporary art violence in the margins and the shadows inherent in Indonesian literature. These various perspectives illuminate a diverse nation in flux and provide direction for its future exploration

Feminist Methodologies Wendy Harcourt,Karijn van den Berg,Constance Dupuis,Jacqueline

Gaybor,2022-02-03 This open access book gives insights into feminist methodologies in theory and practice. By foregrounding the experiential and embodied nature of doing feminist research this book offers valuable tools for feminist research as a continuous praxis. Emerging from a rich collective learning process the collection offers in depth reflections on how feminists shape research questions understand positionality share research results beyond academe and produce feminist intersectional knowledges. This book reveals how the authors navigate theory and practice candidly exploring the difficulty of producing knowledge on the edge of academia and activism. From different points of view places and disciplinary positions artistic and creative experiments and collaborations the book provides a multi layered analysis. This book will be a valuable resource and asset to early career researchers and interdisciplinary feminist students who can learn more about the doing of feminist research from realistic accessible and practical methodological tools and knowledge

The Manufacturing of a President Wayne Madsen,2014-05-05 This book covers Barack H Obama Jr's rapid rise in American politics and the role that the CIA played in propelling him into the White House. Research is based on formerly classified CIA and State Department files personal interviews and international investigations. Obama's birth certificate has never been the issue. The real issue which affects his eligibility to serve as President of the United States is his past and likely current Indonesian citizenship. The reader will be taken through the labyrinth of covert CIA operations in Africa Southeast Asia South Asia and other regions. The real history of President Obama his family and the CIA quickly emerges as the reader wades into the murky waters of America's covert foreign operations A Singular Woman Janny Scott, 2011-05-03 From the author of The Beneficiary Fortune Misfortune and the Story of My Father comes a major publishing event an unprecedented look into the life of the woman who most singularly shaped Barack Obama his mother Barack Obama has written extensively about his father but little is known about Stanley Ann Dunham the fiercely independent woman who raised him the person he credits for as he says what is best in me Here is the missing piece of the story Award winning reporter Janny Scott interviewed nearly two hundred of Dunham's friends colleagues and relatives including both her children and combed through boxes of personal and professional papers letters to friends and photo albums to uncover the full breadth of this woman's inspiring and untraditional life and to show the remarkable extent to which she shaped the man Obama is today Dunham's story moves from Kansas and Washington state to Hawaii and Indonesia It begins in a time when interracial marriage was still a felony in much of the United States and culminates in the present with her son as our president something she never got to see It is a poignant look at how character is passed from parent to child and offers insight into how Obama's destiny was created early by his mother's extraordinary faith in his gifts and by her unconventional mothering Finally it is a heartbreakingly moving story of a woman who died at age fifty two before her son would go on to his greatest accomplishments and reflections of what she taught him The Riddle of Barack Obama Avner Falk, 2010-08-03 An internationally noted clinical psychologist offers readers the first psychological biography of Barack Obama The Riddle of Barack Obama A Psychobiography is the first complete psychological biography of President Barack Obama written by a professional clinical psychologist Covering Obama's life to date as well as the lives of his parents grandparents and other ancestors this fascinating volume illuminates the personal professional political emotional intellectual and creative aspects of Obama's personality as well as the motives conscious and unconscious for his beliefs and actions Dr Avner Falk draws on hundreds of biographies newspaper and magazine articles interviews investigative reports and more using psychoanalytic models developed by Sigmund Freud Donald Winnicott Peter Blos Heinz Kohut and Schiffer to probe Obama's psychological development Examining every facet of the president's biography he delves into his earliest feelings of abandonment and helplessness his inner conflicts his protective relationship with his mother his ambivalent identification with his father and his quest for identity Perhaps most intriguingly Dr Falk explores the psychological origins of Obama's fierce ambitions and the ingredients of his charisma

Publications of the Modern Language Association of America , Ann Dunham's Legacy Islamic Arts Museum Malaysia, 2012 The catalogue focuses on the life and work of Ann Dunham Barack Obama's mother as well as explores the history of batik how it is made worn and collected as well as its alluring array of patterns and motifs P 4 of cover
