Evil by Design Chris Nodder, 2013-06-17 How to make customers feel good about doing what you want Learn how companies make us feel good about doing what they want Approaching persuasive design from the dark side this book melds psychology marketing and design concepts to show why we're susceptible to certain persuasive techniques. Packed with examples from every nook and cranny of the web, it provides easily digestible and applicable patterns for putting these design techniques to work. Organized by the seven deadly sins, it includes: Pride use social proof to position your product in line with your visitors' values; Sloth build a path of least resistance that leads users where you want them to go; Gluttony escalate customers' commitment and use loss aversion to keep them there; Anger understand the power of metaphysical arguments and anonymity; Envy create a culture of status around your product and feed aspirational desires; Lust turn desire into commitment by using emotion to defeat rational behavior; Greed keep customers engaged by reinforcing the behaviors you desire. Now you too can leverage human fallibility to create powerful persuasive interfaces that people will love to use but will you use your new knowledge for good or evil?
