

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE

Don't panic about those scary high costs of attendance you see posted on college websites. Lots of students actually pay through grants, scholarships and other "free" funds by the time all is said and done. To make sure your family gets its fair share of financial aid, follow these very easy steps.

1. ESTABLISH A PLAN

☐ HAVE FAMILY MEETING

There's only so far you can go to carry the burden of your own education. Have a meeting to discuss the cost of attendance and what each family member is able to contribute to the cost. If you have a large family, you'll need to make a budget that includes each child's education, living expenses, and other things you want to do during college.

☐ FIND A FINANCIAL "SAFETY NET"

Look for ways to cover your costs outside what you'll be able to pay. Is a scholarship, loan, or grant available? Can you work at a job during college? Can you help a friend or family member with their education? Can you get a part-time job during college?

☐ SORT OUT A BUDGET PLAN

Apply to as many colleges that completely identify all financial costs as you can. If you get accepted and the numbers don't work out,

2. MAKE A CHOICE

☐ COMPARING THE CHOICES

Even if you don't expect to pay for all your college expenses, you should compare the choices. Look at the cost of attendance, the amount of financial aid you'll receive, and the quality of the college's programs.

☐ KNOW WHAT TO ASK FOR

When you're ready to apply, make sure you're asking for what you need. If you're a first-generation college student, you may not know what to ask for. Ask your advisor or counselor for help. You may also want to ask for help with the application process. You may also want to ask for help with the financial aid process.

☐ MAKE THE CHOICE

After you've compared all the choices, you should be able to make a choice. If you're still unsure, ask your advisor or counselor for help. You may also want to ask for help with the application process. You may also want to ask for help with the financial aid process.
