Kingdom of the Clock Daniel Cowper, 2024-05-15 Such exchanges animate the kingdom of the clock but one by one their trades complete blink out like eyes The city sleeps Set in a vibrant yet ragged coastal city Kingdom of the Clock is a verse novel whose interwoven storylines begin with one day s dawn and end at the first light of the next Within the cycles of that single day the lives of the city s inhabitants unfold An aging stock promoter presides over the fruits of his predatory life A woman tracks her husband s iPhone to the casino An artist races to prevent her masterpiece from being seized to cover unpaid rent A commuter is shaken by a private vision A mother plots to care for her unwell adult daughter Senior and junior partners involved in a fraud weigh the risks and rewards of betraying each other A boy boards an oil tanker with his father in an emergency An elderly chess player prays to the moon for his grandchild to be born alive A homeless man does not know his father is dying After night s crescendo comes the blank page of a new day A clear flowing lyricism fuses the many moving parts of Kingdom of the Clock into an immersive unforgettable reading experience Farmer's Weekly ,1922
