Devised! Doreen Dodgen-Magee,2018-10-08 With current statistics suggesting that the average American over the age of 14 engages with screens upwards of 10 hours a day the topic of our growing dependence upon technology applies to nearly everyone While the effects differ at each point of development real changes to the brain relationships and personal lives are well documented Devised explores these alterations and offers a realistic look at how we can better use technology and break away from the bad habits we've formed. Using personal stories, cutting edge research and anecdotes from youth, parents and professionals, Dodgen Magee highlights the brain changes that result from excessive technology use and offers an approach to the digital world that enables more informed and lasting change and a healthier long term perspective. Given that the reader is living within a culture of ever changing and advancing technologies, Device is written in such a way that its contents can weather the constantly changing digital landscape by focusing on the concepts of honest assessment and healthy boundary setting rather than on specific technologies or platforms. Device offers a mindful approach to assessing current technology use, breaking bad habits, setting new norms and re-engaging with life with renewed richness and awareness.

The Routledge Companion to Fashion Studies Eugenia Paulicelli, Veronica Manlow, Elizabeth Wissinger, 2021-09-19. This collection of original essays interrogates disciplinary boundaries in fashion, gathering fashion studies research across disciplines and from around the globe. Fashion and clothing are part of material and visual culture, cultural memory and heritage they contribute to shaping the way people see themselves, interact and consume. For each of the volume's eight parts, scholars from across the world and a variety of disciplines offer analytical tools for further research. Never neglecting the interconnectedness of disciplines and domains, these original contributions survey specific topics and critically discuss the leading views in their areas. They include discursive and reflective pieces as well as discussions of original empirical work and contributors include established leaders in the field, rising stars and new voices, including practitioner and industry voices. This is a comprehensive overview of the field, ideal not only for undergraduate and postgraduate fashion studies students but also for researchers and students in communication studies, the humanities, gender and critical race studies, social sciences and fashion design and business.

Speaking From Our Hearts Volume 3 Paul D. Lowe, 2021-01-07. More than ever the world appears to be hopelessly paralysed by an extremely challenging four letter F word: FEAR. At a time when people are looking for big answers to seemingly life threatening challenges, there is an urgent need to raise awareness around the potent antidote to fear. There is a cure available to us all though. It comes in the form of something that is already around us and within us: LOVE. Through Speaking From Our Hearts We Become World Game Changers.

The Witch Studies Reader Soma Chaudhuri, Jane Ward, 2025-02-21. Stories about witches are, by their nature, stories about the most basic and profound of human experiences: healing, sex, violence, tragedy, aging, death and encountering the mystery and magic of the unknown. It is no surprise then that witches loom large in our cultural imaginations. In academia, studies of witches rarely emerge from scholars who are themselves witches and/or embedded in communities of witchcraft practitioners. The Witch Studies Reader brings together a diverse group of scholars, practitioners and scholar-practitioners who examine witchcraft from a critical, decolonial, feminist perspective that decenters Europe and departs from exoticizing and pathologizing writing on witchcraft in the global South. The authors show how witches are keepers of suppressed knowledges, builders of new futures, exemplars of praxis and theorists in their own right. Throughout they account for the vastly different national political economic and cultural contexts in which the witch is currently being claimed and repudiated Offering a pathbreaking transnational feminist examination of witches and witchcraft that upends white supremacist colonial patriarchal knowledge regimes this volume brings into being the interdisciplinary field of feminist witch studies Contributors Maria Amir Ruth Asimwe Bernadette Barton Ethel Brooks Shelina Brown Ruth Charnock Soma Chaudhuri Carolyn Chernoff Saira Chhibber Simon Clay Krystal Cleary Adrianna L Ernstberger Tina Escaya Laurie Essig Marcelitte Failla D Ferrett Marion Goldman Jaime Hartless Margaretha Haughwout Patricia Humura Apoorvaa Joshi Govind Kelkar Oliver Kellhammer Ay a Kurto lu Helen Macdonald Isabel Machado Brandy Renee McCann Dev Nathan Mary Jo Neitz Amy Nichols Belo Allison or AP Pierce Emma Quilty Anna Rogel Karen Schaller Jacquelyn Marie Shannon Shashank Shekhar Sinha Gabriella V Smith Nathan Snaza Shannon Hughes Spence Eric Steinhart Morena Tartari Nicole Trigg Katie Von Wald Tushabe wa Tushabe Jane Ward Speaking From Our Hearts Volume 2 Paul D.
