OWOLABI, 2025-07-12 Anointed but Arrested Understanding the Paradox of Divine Anointing and Earthly Trials There is a mystery at the heart of every divine calling the mystery of pain that walks hand in hand with purpose Many celebrate the anointing yet few are prepared for the adversity it attracts The deeper the anointing the fiercer the warfare The moment the Spirit of the Lord rests upon a person a heavenly assignment is born But with it comes a journey often paved with rejection betrayal and pain The same oil that brings the favor of God often provokes the fire of opposition From Isaiah's declaration to Jesus' announcement in Luke 4 the pattern is consistent Anointing is not for applause It is for assignment Yet just moments after Jesus declared His anointing He was nearly thrown off a cliff What a contradiction What a paradox And it is this very paradox that defines the lives of many sincere believers today You know you are called You have seen the dreams Heard the prophecies Felt the power Yet you're facing rejection isolation or battles that don't match your divine assignment You are not alone This is the tension that this book confronts From Joseph's prison to David's caves from Paul's chains to Christ's cross the pattern is clear Before elevation there is crushing Before visibility there is invisibility Before crowns there are crosses God does not waste pain And God does not anoint for show He anoints for service and often suffering is the classroom of those who carry true oil This book is for the misunderstood and the misjudged For the ones who are praying through pain and walking through fire For the anointed who feel arrested It is a reminder that your trials are not proof of abandonment but evidence of assignment God is still with you He is still working And the affliction you face is not the end of your story it is the making of it Anointed but Arrested will awaken your understanding revive your confidence in God's process and reaffirm your identity in Christ You will find clarity comfort and courage to continue knowing that no pit no prison no betrayal can cancel what God has placed inside you Read on You are not crazy You are not cursed You are called And though you may be anointed and arrested you are never abandoned
