TV Guide, 1995 Pillars of Orthodoxy John A. Broadus, J. R. Graves, J. M. Pendleton, James

P. Boyce, John T. Christian, 1901 This book is a history an album and a collection of the choicest sermons and essays It is a history of our great leaders who have fought hard and long for Bible principles and doctrines and by their consecrated and in some instances heroic lives have shown themselves to be worthy of the title Pillars of Orthodoxy The arrangement of the book is such that the reader can study separately the lives of each of these great men and read the specimen sermon or essay without reference to any of the others Each life sketch is complete in itself and no one chapter is dependent on another The life sketch of Richard Fuller and his great sermon on the Desire of All Nations for instance is a complete chapter to itself without reference to anything else in the book This feature enables the busy reader to read a chapter at a time and there is nothing lost by the long intervals between his opportunities to read In a book where one chapter is directly connected with another much is lost by failing to read straight through The last chapter can be read first in this book and nothing will be lost by it It is always a pleasure to look into the face of a great man There is something elevating about it The pictures of these men who seem to be pillars Galatians 2:9 are the very best that can be obtained The reader therefore while he studies the life may look into the faces of these men who have made so much glorious history By that means these pillars of orthodoxy will seem to be old friends and it will make their life work seem more real It can be safely assumed that the sermons and essays published as specimens in this book are the best that have ever been published Some of them are published here for the first time while others have been published and have become famous It is a pleasure to present to the public a volume containing the very cream of the best thought from the strongest men in the Baptist denomination
