The Hidden Language of Baseball Paul Dickson,2019-09-01 Baseball is set apart from other sports by many things but few are more distinctive than the intricate systems of coded language that govern action on the field and give baseball its unique appeal During a nine inning game more than one thousand silent instructions are given from catcher to pitcher coach to batter fielder to fielder umpire to umpire and without this speechless communication the game would simply not be the same Baseball historian Paul Dickson examines the rich legacy of baseball s hidden language offering fans everywhere a smorgasbord of history and anecdote Baseball s tradition of signing grew out of the signal flags used by ships and hand signals used by soldiers during battle and were first used in games during the Civil War The Hartford Dark Blues appear to be the first team to steal signs introducing a larcenous obsession that as Dickson delightfully chronicles has given the game some of its most historic and outlandish moments In this revised and expanded edition through the 2018 season Dickson discusses recent developments and incidents including the illegal use of new technology to swipe signs A roster of baseball s greatest names and games past and present echoes throughout making The Hidden Language of Baseball a unique window on the history of our national pastime

Sen, Devjani,Ahmed, Rukhsana,2020-08-07 Health and fitness apps collect various personal information including name email address age height weight and in some cases detailed health information When using these apps many users trustfully log everything from diet to sleep patterns However by sharing such personal information end users may make themselves targets to misuse of this information by unknown third parties such as insurance companies Despite the important role of informed consent in the creation of health and fitness applications the intersection of ethics and information sharing is understudied and is an often ignored topic during the creation of mobile applications Privacy Concerns Surrounding Personal Information Sharing on Health and Fitness Mobile Apps is a key reference source that provides research on the dangers of sharing personal information on health and wellness apps as well as how such information can be used by employers insurance companies advertisers and other third parties While highlighting topics such as data ethics privacy management and information sharing this publication explores the intersection of ethics and privacy using various quantitative qualitative and critical analytic approaches It is ideally designed for policymakers software developers mobile app designers legal specialists privacy analysts data scientists researchers academicians and upper level students

Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Alexa Scarlata,2025-05-02 The introduction and diffusion of international subscription video on demand SVOD services in the 2010s represented the most significant disruption of established national broadcast and pay TV ecologies in their long history Using an in depth Australian case study this book narrates this profound period of proliferation It also considers how incumbent commercial networks pay TV providers and public service broadcasters developed into online TV providers albeit in assorted ways In so doing it conceives of the early impact of online TV 2015 2020 more broadly and acknowledges the role of both new and old TV players The industry wide shift towards online TV over this period also impacted existing television drama production cultures SVOD services provided a fruitful avenue for the distribution of existing archives and slowly began to support the production of new Australian content with an increasingly global focus However the formal arrival of online TV certainly did not usher in the boom in original local television drama many anticipated Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Australia s Transition advances the macro analysis of television production strategies This book will be useful to students and researchers interested in media film and cultural studies
