Practical Activities and Ideas for Parents of Dyslexic Kids and Teens Gavin Reid, Michelle McIntosh, Jenn Clark, 2022-01-21
This book contains dyslexia friendly practical activities and ideas that can be readily accessed by parents of dyslexic children and teens to support their learning in ways that work for them. It includes 70 activities to boost dyslexic learners' reading, writing, spelling, and executive functioning, as well as aspects which are often overlooked such as emotional wellbeing, memory, and social communication, which are fundamental to self-esteem and positive education experiences. The authors, experienced practitioners in this field, equip parents to support and monitor their child's progress and work through the activities together.

Accessible, motivating, and engaging, this is an essential tool for supporting dyslexic students of all ages. 180 Days:

Total Speech: Blending Techniques in Speech and Language Therapy Karen Massey, Gemma Lester, 2023-07-25. This book explores how speech and language therapists can use a wide range of multi-modal therapy techniques to elicit speech sound. Due to the nature of the approach, there is a limited evidence base in the area, so this book draws on the authors' extensive experience as well as testimonials from families who have been successfully supported by the approach to offer a new and unique perspective for therapy. By using a total communication approach, the book provides clinicians with the confidence to be more open and experimental in their practice when traditional routes are proving unsuccessful to best meet the needs of clients with more complex clinical backgrounds. Chapters include the following: Setting the scene, Persistent speech sound disorders, Popular techniques, Adding the extra dimension, Case studies, How to run a Total Speech group. Total Speech shares success stories of how well-known techniques can be blended to achieve progress and results. It will be a useful addition to any speech and language therapist's therapy toolkit. 180 Days: Cursive:
