The Palgrave Handbook of FinTech and Blockchain Maurizio Pompella, Roman Matousek, 2021-06-01. Financial services technology and its effect on the field of finance and banking has been of major importance within the last few years. The spread of these so-called disruptive technologies including Blockchain has radically changed financial markets and transformed the operation of the industry as a whole. This is the first multidisciplinary handbook of FinTech and Blockchain, covering finance, economics, and legal aspects globally. With comprehensive coverage of the current landscape of financial technology alongside a forward-looking approach, the chapters are devoted to the spread of structured finance, ICT, distributed ledger technology, DLT, cybersecurity, data protection, artificial intelligence, and cryptocurrencies. Given an unprecedented 2020, the contributions also address the consequences of the current emergency and the pandemic, which is revolutionizing social and economic paradigms and heavily affecting FinTech, Blockchain, and the banking sector, as well as being of particular interest to finance academics and researchers alongside banking and financial services professionals.
