Internationalization in Mexican Higher Education Laura Patricia Cruz Ruiz, 2016 In the era of globalization since the 1990s international cooperation has become one of the most challenging topics of debate and research in higher education This book attempts to provide scientific evidence on the debates and different types of internationalization found in higher education from a Mexican point of view It identifies German and Mexican partnership collaborations in institutions of higher education as well as the experiences of German and Mexican university personnel involved in educational projects The findings are based on qualitative research using documentary evidence semi structured expert interviews and qualitative content analysis The study encompasses three levels At the macro level internationalization of higher education is discussed in a general way but with a focus on the Mexican situation presenting a typology of prevailing types of internationalization The meso level includes a secondary analysis of official data on the bilateral relations between German and Mexican institutions of higher education The micro level presents a case study of two particular university collaborations using the experiences of those involved in both countries Laura Patricia Cruz Ruiz born 1972 in Chiapas Mexico studied in the field of education at the Business and Pedagogical Development University UNIVDEP in Mexico City where she received her Master Degree M A in 2008 She has worked at the Mexican Secretariat of Health and Education as well as in the National Council of Science and Technology CONACyT from which in 2010 she obtained a scholarship for her doctoral studies in Germany She held a German Mexican scholarship for international capacity building in Germany from 2005 2006 In 2015 she completed her doctoral degree Dr phil at the Faculty for Philosophy and Educational Research in the field of Comparative Education at Ruhr University Bochum in Germany

Contemplative Studies and Hinduism Rita D. Sherma, Purushottama

Bilimoria, 2020-10-05 This book is one of the first wide ranging academic surveys of the major types and categories of Hindu contemplative praxis It explores diverse spiritual and religious practices within the Hindu traditions and Indic hermeneutical perspectives to understand the intricate culture of meditative communion and contemplation devotion spiritual formation prayer ritual and worship The volume extends and expands the conceptual reach of the fields of Contemplative Studies and Hindu Studies The chapters in the volume cover themes in Hindu contemplative experience from various texts and traditions including classical S khya and Pata jali Yoga the Bhagavata Purana the role of S dhana in Advaita Vedanta ravidya and the r cakra the body in Tantra the semiotics and illocution of Gau ya Vai avas dhana mantra in Mimamsa Vai avas liturgy as well as cross cultural reflections and interreligious comparative contemplative praxis The volume presents indigenous vocabulary and frameworks to examine categories and concerns particular to the Hindu contemplative traditions It traces patterns that cut across Hindu traditions and systems and discusses contrasting methods of different theological philosophical schools evincing a strong plurality in Hindu religious thought and practice The volume provides intra religious comparisons that reveal internal complexity nuances and a variety of contemplative states and transformative practices that exist under the rubric of Hindu practices of interiority and reflection. With key insights on forms and functions of the contemplative experience along with their theologies and philosophies the volume suggests new hermeneutical directions that will advance the field of contemplative studies. This book will be useful to scholars and researchers of religious and theological studies, contemplative studies, Hindu studies, consciousness studies, yoga studies, Indian philosophy and religion, sociology of religion, philosophy of religion, comparative religion and South Asian studies as well as general readers interested in the topic.

Performed Culture in Chinese Language Education

Guangyan Chen, 2020-06-22 Performed Culture in Chinese Language Education: A Culture Based Approach for U.S. Collegiate Contexts elaborates on a cultural awareness oriented cultural performance based and cross cultural communication focused foreign language pedagogical paradigm. Performed Culture Approach in the context of U.S. collegiate Chinese language education. Guangyan Chen draws on the data collected through questionnaires, comparisons between this pedagogy and mainstream pedagogical frameworks and analyses of curricular development, lesson plans and classroom discourses. Chen promotes the performed culture approach by delineating the theoretical framework of this pedagogy, reporting studies that empirically support cultural primacy in Chinese language education and illustrating this pedagogy through analyses of a curricular structure, a lesson plan and classroom discourses. Chen shows how this pedagogy addresses the gaps between the social need for global citizens and the insufficient integration of culture into foreign language education. The performed culture approach also addresses the overall drop in U.S. collegiate foreign language enrollment as this pedagogy connects foreign language programs to university missions and social needs.

Learning Legacies Sarah Ruffing

Robbins, 2017-07-06 Learning Legacies explores the history of cross cultural teaching approaches to highlight how women writer educators used stories about their collaborations to promote community building. Robbins demonstrates how educators used stories that resisted dominant conventions and expectations about learners to navigate cultural differences. Using case studies of educational initiatives on behalf of African American women Native American children and the urban poor Learning Legacies promotes the importance of knowledge grounded in the histories and cultures of the many racial and ethnic groups that have always comprised America's populace underscoring the value of rich cultural knowledge in pedagogy by illustrating how creative teachers still draw on these learning legacies today
