Where The Rivers Run Deep:

Kumazawa Banzan: Governing the Realm and Bringing Peace to All below Heaven Kumazawa Banzan, 2020-11-26

Kumazawa Banzan's 1619-1691 Responding to the Great Learning Daigaku wakumon stands as the first major writing on political economy in early modern Japanese history. John A. Tucker's translation is the first English rendition of this controversial text to be published in eighty years. The introduction offers an accessible and incisive commentary including detailed analyses of Banzan's text within the context of his life as well as broader historical and intellectual developments in East Asian Confucian thought. Emphasizing parallels between Banzan's life events such as his relief efforts in the Okayama domain following devastating flooding and his later writings advocating compassionate government, environmental initiatives, and projects for growing wealth, Tucker sheds light on Banzan's main objective of governing the realm and bringing peace and prosperity to all below heaven. In Responding to the Great Learning, Banzan was doing more than writing a philosophical commentary; he was advising the Tokugawa shogunate to undertake a major reorganization of the polity or face the consequences.

Unashamed Spirit, Untamed Heart Tracy Brown, 2019-07-23 The enigmatic poet Tracy Brown pursues talents both on the stage and on the ropes of the aerial stage. Out of the limelight, Tracy is the warmest soul, volunteer advocate, and support system for many in the Athens area. She is also a Reiki practitioner and Yoga instructor. Poems included in Unashamed Spirit, Untamed Heart have been compiled from several years of self-discovery and healing. Brown finds her truth in myriad experiences and does what she can to shine past hurt, past heartbreak, and past shame. She hopes her poetry will inspire others to release pain they've been holding on to, grab hope in their hands, and fly.

Voyages: Canada's Heritage Rivers (soft cover) Lynn E. Noel, 1995 Voyages is an exceptional book that celebrates the diversity and splendor of the twenty-seven rivers nominated to the Canadian Heritage Rivers system. Lynn Noel has assembled an impressive collection of stories that are filled with a spirit of adventure, discovery, beauty, and joy. The rivers in this book are more than flowing water; each has a unique story to tell and each represents an important part of our Canadian heritage and identity. These rivers are the threads that bind this nation from the Arctic Barrens to southern Ontario's farmlands, from Newfoundland's Rocky Hills to the mountains and glaciers of British Columbia. This is a perfect book for anyone who cares for or wishes to learn about Canada's spectacular river heritage and environment. Don Gibson, National Manager, Canadian Heritage Rivers System project. The exploration of Canada's national river conservation system in its first ten years. Their spirit of place is captured in river songs, folktales, and Canadian literature with color photographs and hand-drawn maps.
