Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries.

A Short Media History of English Literature Ingo Berensmeyer, 2022-08-01 This book explores the history of literature as a history of changing media and modes of communication from manuscript to print from the codex to the computer and from paper to digital platforms. It argues that literature has evolved and continues to evolve in sync with material forms and formats that engage our senses in multiple ways. Because literary experiences are embedded in and enabled by media the book focuses on literature as a changing combination of material and immaterial features. The principal agents of this history are no longer genres, authors and texts but configurations of media and technologies. In telling the story of these combinations from prehistory to the present Ingo Berensmeyer distinguishes between three successive dominants of media usage that have shaped literary history.

performance representation and connection Using English literature as a test case for a long view of media history this book combines an unusual bird s eye view across periods with illuminating readings of key texts It will prove an invaluable resource for teaching and for independent study in English or comparative literature and media studies
