Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries.

Child as Citizen Giuliana Fenech, 2025-08-15 Contributions by Daniela Brockdorff, Nina Christensen, Jill Coste, Katrin Dautel, Justyna Deszcz, Tryhubczak, Giuliana Fenech, Naomi Hamer, Irena Barbara Kalla, Anne Klomberg, Sonali Kulkarni, Elizabeth Leach, Leung Ann, Marie Murnaghan, Emily Murphy, Emilie Owens, Nicola Parker, Patrycja Poniatowska, Meg Rosoff, and Farriba Schulz. Child as Citizen Agency and Activism in Children's Literature and Culture addresses children's and young adult agency and activism across literature and culture demonstrating how these forces influence child citizenship. Contributors to this volume highlight the agentic voices and activist practices that are growing across all spheres of young people's lives as well as the challenges to active citizenship that children growing up in unjust sociopolitical contexts face. The volume is interdisciplinary and draws on the sociology of childhood, children's literature studies, youth culture studies, media technology and cultural studies, and Anthropocene, ecofeminist and disability studies. Agency occurs in and around literature and storytelling and this collection establishes how it is always influenced by identity as well as geopolitics, how it is both subjective and collective, how it is cultural and embodied and how like citizenship it is not a static status but rather an ongoing negotiation. In this collection contributors invite readers to consider agency as a system of relations between children themselves, between children and adults, children and institutions, and children and nation states as well as between children and the nonhuman. This book reviews the interconnectedness between these relationships and attempts to untangle some of the complications that emerge.

exhausted by disappointing relationships Sierra Ford has reached the point where she is ready to give up on men altogether. She escapes her loneliness by reading steamy romance stories and indulging in fantasies about A J Trager a powerful billionaire and the untouchable CEO of his family's corporate empire. When Sierra does date she sticks to safe choices opting for nice predictable men who do not expect sex on the first date and who rarely challenge her emotionally. That carefully controlled approach begins to unravel the moment she meets A J a notorious bad boy billionaire who is known for his charm his confidence and his refusal to commit to any woman for longer than a couple of months. He has never dated a curvy woman before and Sierra assumes she would never be his type. As A J spends more time with Sierra his casual interest turns into something far more intense and consuming than he anticipated. What begins as attraction slowly deepens into obsession leaving him questioning whether he is falling in love for the first time or concealing a shocking secret that could destroy everything they are building together.
