The Secret Life of EL James Marc Shapiro, 2012-12-17 Everyone wants to know how EL James a middle aged mom of two from the London suburbs became the best selling author of all time with over a million books selling worldwide in less than a year and now a major motion picture Read this book to find out exactly how she did it Inside you'll learn how she wrote her first draft based on Twilight fan fiction and how she rewrote it as the book we know and love today the rough and tumble process of editing and how she assembled a group of dedicated fans herself that brought this smutty masterpiece to the rest of the world Inside these pages is the step by step process by which this middle aged British mother came up with the international best selling erotic romance series that has sold more copies than Harry Potter and Gone with the Wind combined NY Times best selling biographer Marc Shapiro uncovers the inspiration and secrets behind this writing sensation explaining how she did it with exclusive interviews with her editors and early fans

Literature and Social Media Bronwen Thomas, 2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media

Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context

The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature's relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it

Tomorrow, and Tomorrow, and Tomorrow Gabrielle Zevin,2024-06-25 ONE OF THE NEW YORK TIMES BEST BOOKS OF THE 21ST CENTURY A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A GLOBE AND MAIL BESTSELLER A JIMMY FALLON BOOK CLUB PICK In this exhilarating novel by the best selling author of The Storied Life of A J Fikry two friends often in love but never lovers come together as creative partners in the world of video game design where success brings them fame joy tragedy duplicity and ultimately a kind of immortality Utterly brilliant In this sweeping gorgeously written novel Gabrielle Zevin charts the beauty tenacity and fragility of human love and creativity Tomorrow and Tomorrow and Tomorrow is one of the best books I've ever read John Green On a bitter cold day in the December of his Junior Year at Harvard Sam Masur exits a subway car and sees amid the hordes of people waiting on the platform Sadie Green He calls her name For a moment she pretends she hasn't heard him but then she turns and a game begins a legendary collaboration that will launch them to stardom They borrow money beg favors and before even graduating college they have created their first blockbuster Ichigo a game where players can escape the confines of a body and the betrayals of a heart and where death means nothing more than a chance to restart and play again This is the story of the perfect worlds Sam and Sadie build the imperfect world they live in and of everything that comes after success Money Fame Duplicity Tragedy

Spanning over thirty years from Cambridge Massachusetts to Venice Beach California and lands in between and far beyond Gabrielle Zevin's Tomorrow and Tomorrow and Tomorrow is a dazzling and intricately imagined novel that examines the multifarious nature of identity games as artform technology and the human experience disability failure the redemptive possibilities in play and above all our need to connect to be loved and to love Yes it is a love story but it is not one you have read before Yellow Wife Sadeqa Johnson, 2021-01-12 Wholly engrossing exquisitely researched and so timely Sadeqa Johnson brings a fresh telling to a story we think we already know making it beautifully relatable and human Riveting and suspenseful I highly recommend this novel Kathleen Grissom New York Times Bestselling author of The Kitchen House This harrowing story follows an enslaved woman forced to barter love and freedom while living in the most infamous slave jail in Virginia Born on a plantation in Charles City Virginia Pheby Delores Brown has lived a privileged life Shielded by her mother's position as the plantation's medicine woman and cherished by the Master's sister she is set apart from the others on the plantation belonging to neither world Freedom on her eighteenth birthday has been promised to her but instead of the idyllic life she imagined with her true love Essex Henry Pheby is forced to leave the only home she has ever known and unexpectedly finds herself thrust into the bowels of slavery at the infamous Devil's Half Acre a jail where the enslaved are broken tortured and sold every day in Richmond Virginia There Pheby is exposed not just to her Jailer's cruelty but also to his contradictions To survive Pheby will have to outwit him but soon faces the ultimate sacrifice Artemis Andy Weir, 2017-11-14 She grew up on the moon of course she has a dark side Jazz Bashara is a criminal Well sort of Life on Artemis the first and only city on the moon is tough if you're not a rich tourist or an eccentric billionaire So smuggling in the occasional harmless bit of contraband barely counts right Not when you've got debts to pay and your job as a porter barely covers the rent Everything changes when Jazz sees the chance to commit the perfect crime with a reward too lucrative to turn down But pulling off the impossible is just the start of Jazz's problems as she learns that she's stepped square into a conspiracy for control of Artemis itself and that now her only chance at survival lies in a gambit even more unlikely than the first
