anthology of short stories marks the fifteenth anniversary of The Story Prize and includes one story from each of the annual winning collections beginning with Edwidge Danticat's The Dew Breaker and concluding with Elizabeth Strout's Anything Is Possible. The founder of The Story Prize Julie Lindsey and its director Larry Dark created this award to address the lack of one specifically for collections of stories. Together they choose three finalists from the previous year's publications which are sent to three judges an author a bookseller or librarian and a critic or editor who independently of one another relay their choices. The prize is then presented at an annual celebration in New York where the finalists read from their books and then discuss their work with Dark. Excerpts from these interviews or in a few cases the judges' citations introduce each story in the book. The authors chose the stories included to read at the annual Story Prize event.

There's nothing like the excitement of being one of the first people to discover a great new read. Now in its fourth edition Buzz Books has proven itself as the place where book publishing insiders and passionate book lovers alike can get their first taste of some of the year's most extraordinary new books. The overwhelming majority of our selections go on to win awards and appear on booksellers' monthly lists of best books as well as best books of the year from many sources while topping bestseller lists and reading group selections as well. Some people think of the spring and summer publishing seasons as a quieter time but last year's Buzz Books collection provided early looks at such books as Philipp Meyer's The Son, Kate Atkinson's Life After Life and Anthony Marra's debut A Constellation of Vital Phenomena all hailed as among the year's very best novels. Inside the book business this volume also coincides with one of the most important industry events the American Booksellers Association's Winter Institute. This is an annual gathering of 500 independent booksellers now a major launch pad for the spring and summer seasons where dozens of authors including ten of those whose work is included here sign pre-publication galleys and discuss their forthcoming books informally with bookstore owners. Instead of keeping that industry buzz closed off in the room with that small group of lucky booksellers we're giving everyone the same kind of access to checking out the newest voices the publishing industry is building for the next season. Samples of novelists you may already know and love include new books from British authors Jojo Moyes One Plus One and Edward St Aubyn Lost for Words alongside bestselling writers Robyn Carr Four Friends and Greg Iles now with a new publisher for his latest thriller Natchez Burning. We preview Giller Prize winner Joseph Boyden's The Orenda already lavishly honored in Canada plus praised novelists Jean Kwok known for Girl in Translation and Maggie Shipstead author of Seating Arrangements return with their anticipated second novels.
