David Green, Joanna Lowry

Time And Photography Time And Photography:

Time and Photography Jan Baetens, Alexander Streitberger, Hilde van Gelder, 2010 Despite our stereotypical ideas on photographic images as a snapshots slices of time photography is fundamentally a time based medium The relationships between photography and time are manifold time can be directly represented within the image it can be its theme and philosophical horizon but it can also represent the global framework in which photographic practices develop and change through time It is the ambition of this book to bring together the various aspect of time in photography as well as of photography in time and to illustrate them in a series of case studies that focus on seminal authors e g Fox Talbot Victor Burgin Robert Morris and genres e g spirit photography montage photobooks and tableau photography with examples ranging from the very first photographic pictures to the most recent cross medial uses of photography in and outside art

Stillness and Time David Green, Joanna Lowry, 2006 This collection of essays by leading photographic and film theorists considers the changing relationship between the still and moving image in contemporary culture The photograph has traditionally been seen as a quintessentially still image Its ability to freeze and hold a moment in time has been the source of its peculiar fascination and the foundation of much of the theoretical discussion about it New technological developments in digital media however have fundamentally altered the ways in which we think about photography in particular forcing us to reconsider our assumptions about the still and the moving image and their relationships to differing conceptions of time Amongst the topics addressed in these essays are the work of artists who extend the still image in time through the use of video or narrative sequencing the aesthetic and philosophical analyses of stasis the place of the pose and tableau in contemporary photography and film the iconography of photography in cinema and the notion of the cinematic fragment and cultural memory BOOK JACKET TIME 100 Photographs The Editors of TIME, 2016-10-19 Since its inception TIME magazine has been synonymous not just with outstanding journalism but also with outstanding photography Now to mark the 175th anniversary of photography and the birth of photojournalism the Editors of TIME magazine are publishing this companion book to the groundbreaking digital celebration of photography that TIME com will be mounting online displaying the most influential photographs of all time While they may not be the most famous or well known photographs each one is unique for the way in which it changed influenced or commemorated a particular world event From the first sports photograph to ever win the Pulitzer Prize that of Babe Ruth at Yankee Stadium to the photograph of Student Neda Agha Soltan s death during Iran s 2009 election protests each of the photographs in 100 Photographs The Most Influential Images of All Time is significant in how it forever changed how we live learn communicate and in many cases view the world

Time in a Frame Alan Thomas, 1977 In Time in a Frame Alan Thomas traces the roots of that consciousness to the invention of photography in the early nineteenth century American Annual of Photography and Phtographic Times-bulletin Almanac , 1924 Photography, Temporality, and Modernity Kris Belden-Adams, 2019-01-14 This book examines the photography's unique capacity to represent time with a degree of elasticity and abstraction Part object study part cultural philosophical history it examines the medium's ability to capture and sometimes defy time while also traveling as objects across time and space nexuses The book features studies of understudied widespread practices studio portraiture motion studies panoramas racing photo finishes composite college class pictures planetary photography digital montages and extended exposure images A closer look at these images and their unique cultural historical contexts reveals photography to be a unique medium for expressing changing perceptions of time and the anxiety its passage provokes American Annual

of Photography and Photographic Times Almanac, 1887 The Selfie, Temporality, and Contemporary

Photography Claire Raymond, 2021-05-09 This book is a theoretical examination of the relationship between the face identity photography and temporality focusing on the temporal episteme of selfie practice Claire Raymond investigates how the selfie's involvement with time and self emerges from capitalist ideologies of identity and time The book leverages theories from Katharina Pistor Jacques Lacan Ragnvaldur Ingthorsson and Hans Belting to explore the ways in which the selfie imposes a dominant ideology on subjectivity by manipulating the affect of time The selfie is understood in contrast to the self portrait Artists discussed include James Tylor Shelley Niro Ellen Carey Graham MacIndoe and LaToya Ruby Frazier The book will be of interest to scholars working in visual culture history of photography and critical theory It will also appeal to scholars of philosophy and in particular of the intersection of aesthetic theory and theories of ontology epistemology and temporality American Annual of Photography and Photographic Times-bulletin Almanac, 1894 Creating Visual
